ROME—This is the one of year when one is supposed to make good resolutions. My New Year's resolution is, if possible, never again to travel by air in winter in Europe. My fervent hope for the year 1946 is that trains may start running and that it will be possible to arrive at one's destination only a few hours instead of several days late.

CHURCHILL

SOME WEEKS AGO I described how it took me four days to fly from London to Moscow. I have just taken five days to fly from London to Rome.

The first day, the trip was postponed 24 hours owing to bad weather. The second day, we got 100 miles across France and were then ordered to return to base as the weather in the south of France was said to be deteriorating.

On the third day, the flight again was postponed 24 hours. On the

Civic Elections

Toronto Votes Build Canada's First Subways

By The Canadian Press

One change in Toronto's 1946 board of control and overwhelming endorsation of three traffic plans estimated to cost $55,000,000 was shown today in complete election returns for Toronto, one of several Ontario points holding New Year's Day municipal elections.

H. B. McKELLAR maintained an edge shown over W. J. Wadsworth, 1945 controller, in incomplete returns last night to win the last place on the four-man board of control. He joined three re-elected incumbents, Stewart Smith, H. E. McCallum and D. A. Balfour.

Mayor Robert Saunders had previously been acclaimed for his second term.

The main traffic plan, a rapid transit project that would give Toronto the first street railway subway system in Canada, was approved by a 9-1 majority.

COMPLETE RESULTS from Toronto's 863 subdivisions follow:

Board of control (four to be elected): Con. Stewart Smith, 41,751; Con. H. E. McCallum 42,682; Con. D. A. Balfour, 41,008; H. B. McKellar, 35,955; Con. W. J. Wadsworth, 35,775; L. H. Saunders, 33,232; Harry Bradley, 6,800.

BY-LAWS:

Rapid transit — For, 79,935; Against, 8,630. Don Valley roadway—For, 32,109; Against, 12,406.

Clifton road extension—For 36,528; Against, 7560.

One member of the 1946 city council will be a woman, Mrs. May Blanchard.

Mrs. Blanchard, former member of the Board of Education, was successful in her third bid for aldermanic honors in ward 2. The other newcomers to the city council are Allen A. Lamport, ward 3, councillor in 1936 and 1937 and former Liberal member of the Ontario legislature for Toronto-St. David; Deward Ferguson, ward 6, acting president of the Canadian Seamen's Union; and Dr. William H. Bull, ward 7, former president of the Board of Education, who won his first attempt at an aldermanic seat.

ELSE WHERE Dr. W. J. MacDonald was elected mayor of St. Catherines, Ont. He defeated Richard Robertson, 3732 to 2,265. St. Catherines also elected a nine-man city council and two water commissioners.

Owen Sound, which had given its mayor, J. E. Knox, an acclamation, elected four councillors and turned down a proposal to increase the number of public utilities commissioners from three to five.

Several towns, villages and townships which held nominations yesterday returned their mayors and reeves by acclamation, but in a number of cases the number nominated was large enough to suggest a stiff fight for the offices before the election next Monday.

Mauretania Docks With 5,618 Troops

HALIFAX, Jan. 2.—(CP) — The first contingent of Canadian overseas veterans to arrive back home in 1946—5,618 sailors, soldiers and airmen—aboard the troopship Mauretania as she steamed into port here last night.

The 35,677-ton liner was all lights on in keeping with the holiday spirit that prevailed among the eager passengers. The army draft of 4,849 ranks predominated the crowds lining the deck of the Mauretania but 718 RCAF and 51 Navy personnel added a touch of blue.

THERE WERE no complete army units aboard the big ship. The maritime veterans from Military District No. 6 disembarked shortly after the gangplank was down while the remainder of the passengers spent the night aboard ship.

Fifteen troop trains—13 for the Army and two for the RCAF—were lined up by embarkation officials and will pull out hourly, starting early Wednesday with veterans for other parts of the dominion.

New Year's Eve Highway Fatality

Knocked down and severely injured by a truck, Mrs. Margaret (Enders) Holm of Stony Plain died before she could be rushed to hospital here, following a New Year's Eve accident on the Jasper highway about 10 miles west of Edmonton. She was returning to her home after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Stanley D. Taylor of the South Side Auto Camp.

MRS. HOLM WAS RIDING in a car driven by her son, John Holm of Stony Plain. Near Winterburn, the Holms stopped to assist a motorist stuck in the ditch. According to word received by Mrs. Taylor, her mother had just stepped out of the car and was walking around the back of it when she was hit by the truck.

The 61-year-old woman was well-known in the Stony Plain district, where she had resided since 1893. Born in Austria, Mrs. Holm came to Canada in 1891.

RCMP REVEALED Wednesday afternoon that the driver of the truck, Walter Wocasek, has been arrested. Police said that Wocasek was proceeding to his home at Stony Plain from Canmore. He is said by police to have been driving at a high rate of speed and failed to notice flashlight signals given to him by motorists who had stopped to get another motorist out of the ditch.

The 31-year-old farmer crashed into a parked car after hitting Mrs. Holm, and he suffered leg injuries. He is now in Misericordia hospital here for treatment. Roman Young, a Chinese passenger in Wocasek's truck, escaped without serious injury.

MRS. HOLM IS survived by six sons, Joseph Enders, Henry Enders, Jacob Enders and Ludwig Enders, all of Stony Plain, and John Holm and Carl Holm, also of Stony Plain; three daughters, Mrs. Oscar Wagner and Mrs. Emilia Ziehr of Stony Plain and Mrs. S. D. Taylor of Edmonton; 11 grandchildren; one great-grandchild; two brothers and three sisters.

A funeral service to be arranged by Hainstock and Sons Ltd., will be announced later.

Chinese Reds Declare State Of Civil War

By SPENCER MOOSA

CHUNGKING, Jan. 2.—(AP)—A Communist spokesman declared tonight the Communists would resist any attack upon them in the Inner Mongolian province of Jehol, into which National troops are moving, and said: "This is civil war."

HIS DECLARATION came as China waited the Communist reply to the government's truce counter-proposals calling for an immediate end of China's civil war.

"Communist troops will resist any attack on them in Jehol," the spokesman said. "This is civil war."

A few hours earlier P. H. Chang, government cabinet spokesman, said the central government was taking over Jehol as "a matter of course."

HE SAID administrative personnel were being sent into the northern province behind columns of troops swinging into Jehol from Manchuria.

Calgary Pioneer, H. W. Riley Passes

CALGARY, Jan. 2.—(CP)—Harold William Riley, member of one of Calgary's most distinguished families, who came to the city as a boy nearly 60 years ago, died Tuesday night at his home. Mr. Riley was widely known for his work in connection with the Southern Alberta Pioneers' and Old Timers' Association. He had a colorful career in politics, also served overseas in the First Great War and for many years was a member of the Calgary city council.

Born in St. Lambert, near Montreal, Que., Dec. 19, 1871, he came to Alberta with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Riley.

IN 1905 WHEN THE Province of Alberta was formed he became its first deputy provincial secretary. At that time he had the distinction of being the youngest deputy minister in Canada.

In 1908 when the University of Alberta was founded Mr. Riley became honorary secretary of the board of governors and the first registrar of the university. He organized the first University of Alberta convocation for graduates.

In 1912 he was elected to represent Gleichen constituency in the provincial legislature.

Thank Canada, Says Paper

LONDON, Jan. 2.—(Reuters)—Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express today published the following editorial entitled "Thank Canada":

"Everywhere in the south of England in this period of post-war austerity someone comparing this season with a year ago will say: 'At least nothing is dropping on us.'

"Who stopped the V-bombs and the rockets? Who cleaned up the nests of these projectiles in France, Holland and Belgium and gave us respite at last, even before the war was won?

"It was the Canadians (with our own countrymen) who did it—at great sacrifice. Never should it be forgotten. Here forever is a bond—a new bond if one were needed—between Canada and London.

"Bless the name of the Canadians who came so far to do so much."

300 Army Veterans Arrive In Edmonton New Year's Day

Those who had seen many trainloads of troops greeted at Edmonton's CPR station were certain Tuesday night that they had never seen a larger crowd of citizens crowding the lobby and the platform for any night-time train than the enthusiastic hundreds who engulfed three hundred army arrivals on the 11:05 p.m. passenger train from Calgary.

The welcomers were unanimous in their appreciation of the welcome they had received in Canada where people imbued with seasonal good wishes had turned out to cheer the veterans on their way home.

They had spent Christmas Day on the storm-tossed Atlantic and reported that those who had been able to had enjoyed the day fully on the great liner. But there were thousands on the ship who did not enjoy Christmas dinner, nor did they enjoy the prospect of sailing it. "It was really rough" said one

New Arrivals Greet New Year

Just 43 minutes after the old year had taken its leave, little baby new year, an eight pound four ounce boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Easton Powell, 9327 74 avenue, arrived in the University hospital. This is the first time that this hospital has had the honor of receiving the first baby born in a new year, in the city. In all 10 babies were born here on New Year's Day.

MRS. POWELL SAID the boy will be named Richard Irving, the same name as his grandfather. The Powells also have a four and one-half year old girl. The father is a department manager at Gainers.

Second place honors went to the Royal Alexandra hospital, and Mrs. Willa McLaughlin, wife of a U.S. Navy man, who is at present stationed in California. Their home is at 9115 91 street.

Seven pound eight ounce Miss McLaughlin arrived at 7:30 a.m. New Year's Day. This is the first addition to the McLaughlin family.

Cabinet Resumes Daily Meetings

The provincial cabinet has resumed, after a holiday recess, daily meetings to consider bills intended for this year's session of the legislature.

These daily meetings were commenced shortly before Christmas, and will continue for as many as necessary of the days remaining between now and next Tuesday when the government caucus gathers to consider bills.

It is estimated the caucus will last about three days.

Premier Ernest Manning said Wednesday he would not predict what legislation is expected to be brought down, at least until after the caucus.

Constable Charged, Victim In Hospital

One man is in hospital and a second under arrest on a charge of wounding following a shooting affray in a city cafe early Tuesday morning.

HUGH ALEXANDER ADAMS of Fort Francis, Ont., is in the University hospital suffering from a gunshot wound in the left leg, alleged by police to have been inflicted by A. L. Sands, 40 years olds who is employed as a special constable at the Alcan Cafe, 9755 Jasper avenue.

According to statements given police by witnesses of the incident, Sands was trying to eject from the cafe a man said to have been using foul language, when Adams, according to police interfered and a fight resulted. During the fight, Sands is said to have pulled his gun and shot Adams in the leg.

ADAMS WAS RUSHED to hospital where it was found a bullet entered the left thigh between the knee and hip, passed through the fleshy part of the leg and came out at the back of the leg close to the knee. Hospital authorities said the injured man's condition was "satisfactory" this morning. He had been residing at the Salvation Army Hostel here.

City police, called to the scene of the shooting, arrested Sands on a charge of wounding, after a questioning both members of the cafe's staff and patrons. It was revealed that Sands was admitted to hospital Tuesday for a check-up following his arrest.

POLICE WERE CONTINUING their investigations into the shooting on Wednesday.

City police pointed out today that special constables are not on the strength of the police department and do not come under the chief constable for discipline. They are sworn in by police magistrates and empowered to act only in the places designated in their warrant. They are paid by the establishment in which they are employed.

Sands has acted as a special constable since the beginning of the war. It is understood that he was issued a license to carry a gun by the RCMP.

Sands, who is scheduled to appear in city police court Wednesday in answer to the wounding charge, is said to be suffering from a stiff neck, an injured left arm and severe bruises in the region of the lower ribs.

Sands, who is in hospital suffering from a stiff neck, severe bruises in the region of the lower ribs, and an injured left arm, was unable to appear in the city police court Wednesday morning in answer to the wounding charge, and the case was adjourned until Jan. 10.

Gen. Eisenhower To Visit Ottawa

OTTAWA, Jan. 2.—(CP)—Gen. Eisenhower, chief of the United States Army staff and former commander-in-chief of the Allied armies in Europe, and Mrs. Eisenhower, will arrive in Ottawa Jan. 9 for "a few days visit," Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced yesterday.

Mr. King added that Gen. Eisenhower will visit Toronto Jan. 12, where the University of Toronto will confer on him an honorary degree.

Mild Weather Continues Here

Starting out the New Year with good weather conditions prevailing, Edmontonians Wednesday were finding fur coats and heavy winter woollies just a trifle odious as the mercury hovered well above the zero mark and the official forecast read "fair and mild".

Estimated high for the day was 25 above, a mark which was also Tuesday's maximum. Minimum overnight was 10 above and the minimum Tuesday night above. Reading at 10 a.m. was 14 above. The overall forecast was "generally fair and comparatively mild".

Report City Man Drowned at Resort

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Jan. 2. (CP)—The body of a man tentatively-identified as John Gray Caldwell, 23, of Edmonton was found in the ocean yesterday clad only in swimming trunks. Operators of a beach club said trunks were similar to those worn by a man who went swimming Dec. 16 and failed to return, leaving his clothes in a club locker.

John Caldwell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Caldwell of 11021 125 street. He attended Westmount public and high schools here.

Totals For Year

Figures Reveal Sharp Upswing City's Economy

Indicative of Edmonton's economic upswing in the immediate post-war period are the substantial increases recorded during 1945 in bank clearings, city tax collections, sales of city-owned land, customs collections, and the total of building permits issued.

BANK CLEARINGS in 1945 totalled $3,019,366,235.85, compared with $686,241,682.22, an increase of $333,054,551.62. This increase is regarded as extraordinary as many registered a sharp decline in clearings when the impetus of war purchasing slackened at the conclusion of World War II.

City tax collections, current and arrears, reached an all-time high when $5,404,650.53 was poured into the city treasury, compared with $5,044,978 in 1944, for an increase of $359,672 above the previous record collection year of 1944.

THE CITY LAND department also set an all-time record for land sales when $1,041,312 of tax forfeited property was disposed of to beat by $194,809 the previous high achieved in 1944. Open property sales amounted to $846,503.

Building permits issued in 1945 totalled $7,588,348 compared with $5,720,705 the previous year, for a gain of $2,229,243.

Customs collections also showed a substantial gain in 1945 over the previous year. The payments for clearings through the Edmonton port in 1945 was $6,994,459 against $6,659,949.65, an increase of $334,509.81.

THE CITY LICENSE department also had a good year with revenue $11,970 ahead of the previous record year, 1944, when $86,173.14 was collected. The collections in 1945 totalled $97,143.81.

Liquor Vendors' Hours Unchanged

Liquor vendors' hours for January will remain 10 a.m. until 8 p.m. for the month at least, said J. A. King, chairman of the liquor control board on Wednesday.

Although the chairman intimated that the possibility that these hours might be continued even longer than the month, he has not yet committed himself to this.

The hours affect seven stores in Alberta cities and it is believed the extension may ease the customary January business in new permits which in January and February of the past few years has been conducted by separate permit-selling offices.

LT. AUSTIN H. FORD, now a lieutenant commander, is a Calgarian, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ford of that city. Prior to enlisting he was paymaster with the Chrysler Motor Company at Windsor, Ont., from which point he joined the Canadian Navy. He has seen service since June, 1941, in various parts of Canada and Newfoundland. His wife and two children, Barbara Ann and Harry Austin, reside at 10152 113 street.

Bruce C. Whittaker, Edmonton barrister, is one of those included in the promotions section of the honors list as being appointed as acting lieutenant commander (Shore Patrol). Lt. Cmdr. Whittaker is the son of Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Whittaker 10240 124 street. He was graduated in law from the University of Alberta and was gold medallist of his class.

LT. W. G. MORROW, whose citation awarded a Mention in Dispatches, served in the navy since early in 1940. He is a law graduate from the University of Alberta and before entering the service became a partner in his father's legal firm of Morrow and Morrow.

He was a member of the crew of the minesweeper Georgian, which lists among other accomplishments the destruction of being the first Canadian ship to refuel a plane at sea. It had also taken part in the rescue of a Spitfire flier who had crashed into the sea and was taken from a drifting ice floe.

THE GEORGIAN was the first minesweeper in the convoy of vessels to cut a gap in the minefields guarding the Normandy coast on D-Day.

Lt. Morrow has now been placed on the retired list and has resumed his law practice here.

HIS CITATION READS: Lt. Morrow has served for two years on board HMCS "Georgian" in the North Atlantic and in minesweeping during the invasion of France. During this time he showed unequalled resource, outstanding zeal, leadership and devotion to duty.

Roy Percy Garrett, 9712 87 avenue, whose citation for the award of Mention in Dispatches follows, enlisted in the RCNVR early in the war and saw service in Canada and Great Britain for more than five years, before his discharge two months ago. He served as an engine room artificer aboard HMCS Orangelly.

His citation: For continued good service over a period of fourteen months at sea. He has shown initiative and cheerfulness in carrying out engine repairs at sea, and has set an example to his subordinates.

PO. R. G. BACKUS, who formerly lived at 10706 69 avenue, has served for the last 17 years with the RCNVR. He is now stationed in Vancouver. His citation follows:

For outstanding zeal and efficiency. Petty Officer Backus has served 17 years in the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve. Throughout this war his service in His Majesty's Canadian destroyers has been exemplary.

PETTY OFFICER R. F. Wilson lives with his wife at 10626 97 avenue and would not discuss his service in the navy when he was queried on Monday evening. He left the navy in July of this year.

His citation reads: Continuous good service over a long period. Petty Officer Wilson has served in the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve since March, 1938. He has been an excellent example to his subordinates, by his unfailing cheerfulness and devotion to duty. He gave freely of his time to teach his men, thereby stimulating their interest and greatly increasing the efficiency of his branch in HMCS "Inch Arran."

Citation for Ldg Smn. L. Baldwin, 9741 95 street, Edmonton, whose wife lives in Vancouver, follows: This rating joined the defensively equipped Merchant ship service in January, 1943 and served continually at sea for two and a half years. He has proved himself a cheerful and willing, pursuing his duties with devotion regardless of conditions. His initiative and conduct have set a fine example to those serving with him.

Lt.-Cmdr. E. B. Watt, who was awarded the MBE for non-operational service, is a well-known Edmonton writer. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Balmer Watt live at 11608 100 avenue. His wife lives in Ottawa.

LT.-COL. LOUIS YOUNGER, OBE, DSO, MC, 11004 86 avenue, has served with distinction since the beginning of the war and for a while was commandant of the Grande Prairie Army Training Centre.

A distinguished veteran of World War I, he served with the 10th (Alberta) Battalion of the Second Brigade winning the DSO and the MC and Two Bars. He later served as Brigade Major of the 9th Canadian Infantry Brigade of the 3rd Canadian Division.

MAJ. JAMES S. PEPPARD, MBE, enlisted in the army in Edmonton early in the war and served more than four years before being discharged in November, 1945. He was well known here and in northern Alberta. He married the former Marjorie Derbyshire of this city in 1935. He is now working in Calgary.

Captain K. G. Surbeck, MBE, whose wife and family reside at 9855 79 avenue, enlisted early in the war and has seen service in most of the European theatres. He is expected to return to Canada in late February or early March.

VETERAN OF BOTH great wars, RSM H. W. Hunter, MBE, 8929 89 street, enlisted in the army in September, 1939 and saw service at many stations in both eastern and western Canada and also in Newfoundland. He served more than two years during the first Great War fighting, overseas with the famous 10th Battalion. He was wounded at Hill 70 in 1917.

RSM Hunter, who is now spending 30 days leave with his family here, expects to be discharged some time this month.

CSM H. L. MACHNEE, CWAC, is still in the army doing administrative work at Camp Borden. Ontario, where she has been stationed for some months. Her husband, who was in an artillery anti-aircraft unit in France was killed at Caen nearly two years ago.

Her mother, Mrs. R. Evans, lives at 11425 89 street in Edmonton. Three of her brothers are still in the army. She enlisted in Edmonton over three and one-half years ago.

CAPT. L. B. YULE, MBE, was associated with the provincial department of education before the outbreak of war and was the first superintendent of the Vegreville school division when the schools in that area came under the enlarged school area system.

Lt. (NS) M. Baldwin, who once lived at 13024 123 street, has since moved to Morinville.

S-Sgt. J. Williams, BEM, is still overseas and is with HQ "E" Group CRU, where he occupies an administrative post. He joined the army in 1939 just after the declaration of war and here was with No. 1 Field Hygiene Section, RCAMC.

GROUP CAPT. V. H. PATRIARCHE, OBE, AFC, ED, was awarded the AFC in the honors list issued in 1943.

He had been a "bush" pilot before the war, flying out of eastern airports. A year ago he came to Edmonton to take over command of the Northwest Staging Route of the RCAF.

WING CMDR. D. R. EASTON now occupies the post of district medical officer for the Department of Veterans Affairs, after having served with the RCAF for more than five years in both England and in Canada. Before enlisting he had been an official with the department of health in Ontario. His wife and two daughters, who came to Edmonton with him, are now living at 11128 85 avenue.

Wing Cmdr. Howard L. Watson has been flight control officer for the Northwest Staging route, RCAF for many months, after a period of training which took him to west coast stations. He has been in charge of all the complicated control systems along the whole northwest route. Before enlistment he was on the staff of The Edmonton Bulletin as circulation manager.

F/O. G. J. ANDERSON, AFC, is now awaiting his civilian transport license after five years' service in the RCAF. For two of those years he was on deferment and acted as a civilian instructor in Canada. His parents live at Wetaskiwin, but his wife and family are at 11223 91 street. Most of his service was in Western Canada, where he acted as an instructor after he donned air force uniform.

CYRIL G. EMERY, BEM, is a former RCAF flight sergeant equipment assistant. Born in Vermilion 35 years ago, he was educated in Edmonton. He saw service in Toronto, Ottawa and Edmonton. Married, he has one daughter, 15 months old, Barbara Stanley. He is a pilot with Canadian Pacific Airlines at Vancouver.

L. L. TERCIER, BEM, who was discharged from the RCAF as a flight sergeant last October, served with a construction and maintenance unit in various parts of Canada following enlistment in January, 1942. He is a native of Fort Saskatchewan who received his education there and at Victoria high school in Edmonton. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Tercier, 10173 105 street. A brother, Sgt. A. H. Tercier, is stationed at North West Air Command headquarters.

Sgt. Harriet M. Hopkins, BEM, is a former member of the Edmonton Grads' basketball team and is the only member of that organization to wear a uniform in this war. She joined up in January, 1942, and since that time has served at Dauphin, Man., and at Rockcliffe, near Ottawa, where she worked in RCAF headquarters. Having left the services she intends to go to Macdonald College, Montreal.

GROUP CAPTAIN W. J. "Packy" McFarlane, mentioned in dispatches, spent a year of his lengthy service in the RCAF in command of the Northwest Staging Route, following which he was posted to the command of a bombing and gunnery school at Jarvis, Ont.

He learned to fly at Vancouver and had been associated with the criminal investigation branch of the Vancouver police where war broke out. He is now a resident in Edmonton and plans operation of a wood-working plant which will specialize in the production of non-standard types.

WO2 GEORGE D. WILLIAMS, whose mother resides at 9321 98A street, has been mentioned in dispatches after more than five years' service in the Royal Canadian Air Force. He enlisted early in the war and saw service in many parts of Canada, notably Toronto, Montreal, Kamloops and Vancouver. Discharged two months ago, he is now attached to the B. C. Police at Chilliwack, B.C.

Flt. Lt. J. L. Barclay, 10815 86 avenue, has received the King's Commendation for valuable service rendered in Canada and overseas. Enlisting in June 1940, he served as an instructor at RCAF stations throughout Canada until December, 1944, when he was posted overseas. He returned to Canada last summer.

FLT. LT. R. E. HARMAN who was awarded the King's Commendation for Valuable Service in the Air was a graduate of Edmonton Normal school and taught at Vermilion before he enlisted. He received his wings in March, 1942 and after further training in Canada made his first tour of operations from British air bases.

He returned to Canada for a leave in April 1944 after being injured when a transport plane he was piloted crashed during a take-off. He then returned to Europe.

SQDN. LDR. C. R. THOMPSON who also received the King's commendation for Valuable service in air, served overseas in late 1943 and early 1944.

When the spring term re-opens at the University of Alberta, Mr. Thompson intends to register there in the faculty of engineering. His wife and two sons live at 11507 72 street.

FLT.-SGT. O. S. HARGREAVES, who received the King's Commendation for Valuable Service in the Air, spent his time in the air force as an instructor at 2 AOS, Edmonton. Born in New Zealand, he first came to Canada in 1929. He has been in charge of parachute work at the Northwest Air Command for some months.

Wing Cmdr. C. G. Durham, OBE, MM, is well known in this city, though his home is now in Calgary. He was stationed here in an administrative capacity for over a year before his retirement in October, 1945. A flyer with the Royal Flying Corps during the First Great War he was awarded the Croix de Guerre and was given the MM for his services in the ranks prior to joining the pioneer aviators of the First Great War.

Sailors never whistle aboard ship not because of superstition, but because the sound might be confused with a bosun's pipe, the engine-room telephone, or the telltale shriek of an improperly lubricated piece of machinery.

Six Executive Generals Head King's Honors List

OTTAWA, Jan. 2.—(CP)—Administrators dominated the King's Canadian New Year's army honor's list which included the names of some of the men who planned the Canadian army Pacific force.

The war clean-up list, released Monday, contained 440 names and was headed by six executive generals made Companions of the Order of the Bath. No citations were given.

They were:

Maj.-Gen. C. P. Fenwick, CBE, MC, of Toronto, director general of the army medical services.

Maj.-Gen. Ralph B. Gibson, CBE, of Ottawa, hard-working vice-chief of the general staff.

Maj.-Gen. H. F. G. Letson, CBE, MC, of Toronto, chairman of the joint staff committee at Washington.

Maj.-Gen. A. E. (Ernie) Walford, CBE, MM, of Montreal, retiring adjutant general.

Maj.-Gen. E. G. (Bunny) Weeks, CBE, MC, of Toronto and Charlottetown, former administrative chief at Canadian military headquarters in London and reported as likely successor to Gen. Walford.

Maj.-Gen. J. V. Young, CBE, of Ottawa, retired master general of ordnance.

MANY FAMOUS Canadian soldiers were included in the list of those made Commanders of the Order of the British Empire (CBE). Among them were:

Maj.-Gen. Dan Spry, DSO, of Halifax, former commander of the 3rd Division and at present commander of the repatriation unit in Britain.

Brig. D. R. Agnew of Ottawa, commander of the Saint John, N.B., military district.

Brig. F. C. Morton of Ottawa, commander of the Winnipeg military district.

Brig. Rev. C. G. Hepburn, MC, of Ottawa, retired senior Protestant chaplain.

Brig. Rev. R. C. MacGillivray, MC, of Antigonish, N. S., retired senior Roman Catholic chaplain.

Brig. R. C. Pennington, DSO, of Kingston, Ont., former commandant at Royal Military College who has retired from the army.

Brig. Leslie C. Goodeve, DSO, of Halifax, chief of the Newfoundland force.

BRIG. H. D. GRAHAM, DSO, of Ottawa, deputy adjutant general.

Brig. Milton F. Gregg, VC, MC, former commander of the Brockville officers training school and now president of the University of New Brunswick.

Brig. Orville M. M. Kay, of Winnipeg, military attache at Chungking.

Brig. Sherwood Lett, DSO, MC, of Vancouver, twice wounded and retired deputy chief of the general staff.

Brig. J. L. Melville, MC, of Ottawa, former chief engineer of the 1st Canadian Army who now is serving on the pensions commission.

Brig. H. G. Nolan, MC, of Calgary, vice-judge advocate general.

Brig. John M. Rockingham, DSO, of Victoria, retired commander of the 9th Infantry Brigade.

Brig. G. A. Ferguson of Saskatoon, deputy adjutant general.

Brig. W. A. Bean of Kitchener, Ont., who set up the Canadian replacement depot organization for the Pacific force.

Brig. A. J. Creighton of Vancouver, director of military training and organizer of the reinforcement depot for the Pacific force.

TWO MEN who are writing the Canadian history of the war were also included in the honors. Col. A. F. Duguid, DSO, of Ottawa, chief of the army historical section, and Col. C. P. Stacey of Ottawa, historian, were each made officers of the Order of the British Empire (OBE).

The man who ensured the delivery of the army's mail—Col. Edward J. Underwood of Ottawa, also was awarded an OBE.

A writer and radio commentator was included in the list of members of the Order of the British Empire (MBE). He was Maj. Brian Meredith of Ottawa, chief of the forces radio network in Holland.

Members of the nursing services and the CWAC also were included in the list of awards.

returned man. "And though I was alright, I was the only one in our group who was."

SIXTY SERVICEMEN with similar stories had been met at the CNR train during the afternoon of New Year's Day. The trains which brought them back home were specials routed through to the Pacific coast with Vancouver and Victoria units aboard. They also crossed on the Queen Elizabeth. Some 1,080 soldiers for the west were on two afternoon trains.

Pte. G. Gassinger, 11520 93 street, had not seen his five-year-old daughter for more than four years, and was looking forward eagerly to greeting her and her mother. He had served with the 1st Canadian Corps in Italy and later in the northwest European field with the Ordnance Corps.

NEVER WOUNDED "but seared lots of times" was the confession of Pte. W. Sutherland, 10844 Streamstown, who had been with the 1st Canadian Divisional Signals in Italy and later in Holland, Belgium and Germany. He intends to return to the "saving" he is more than glad to get back there."

CQMS Irving White, 9651 103A street, was met by an enthusiastic crowd of relatives, including one brother now released from the services, who served with The Loyal Edmonton Regiment in the same theatres of war. White had been overseas five years with the RCA SAC, serving with the 1st and 4th Armoured Brigade Company through the Sicilian and Italian campaigns.

He intends to return to school, he says. He will probably take advantage of the facilities offered by the rehabilitation schemes to attend the University of Alberta in the faculty of engineering.

Sgmn. A. Marchuk of Two Hills was pleasantly surprised when nearly a score of relatives from that town and from the city were at the station to greet him. He had been with the First Canadian Army Signals Unit and had been overseas for nearly four years. On VE Day he had been with his unit at Arnheim, Holland, working night and day trying to put communications through.

V-E DAY WAS SPENT by Gnr. V. J. Saunders, Breton, on the other side of Aurich, Germany. He had been away from his northern Alberta home for three and one-half years, serving with the 4th Light Anti-Aircraft and with the 11th Anti-Aircraft Regiment.

Ross Pilling, 11-year-old son of Sgt. A. Pilling, 11607 85 street was overjoyed to greet his returning father after a four-year absence. Sgt. Pilling had served with the 12th Field Regiment, RCA, and had landed with that unit in France on D-Day. High casualties in his unit had left him unscathed, he said.

Others who returned on New Years Day included Gnr. R. J. Gauer, Boyle; Pte. C. J. Critchley, 10204 125 street and Cpl. E. Scaurman, 9433 109A avenue.

Today in Europe

fourth day, we got as far as Istres, some 40 miles west of Marseilles. Here a gale of wind blew the tail of our Dakota into a truck. RAF Transport Command did not have the necessary spare parts.

NORMALLY THE RAF and the American Air Transport Command, when sharing an airfield, help each other out in the matter of spares. Unfortunately, the American colonel was away in Nice, and his deputy was in Wiesbaden. The lieutenant in charge of the American unit was doubtful whether he could take the responsibility of loaning the RAF the necessary spares. Eventually, however, he took the plunge and we got to Rome the following evening around nine o'clock.

Here we found Field Marshal Lord Alan Brooke, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, on the last lap of a 40,000-mile round trip which had taken him in a British Stork from England to Burma, Singapore, Tokyo and Australia. In the whole of the trip, he never once was delayed by bad weather until he got back to Italy, where he had been stuck for four days.

THERE SEEMS no doubt that, of all the flying weather in the world, that which prevails in Europe in the winter is the worst. This is going to have a restrictive influence on the development and expansion of European air traffic. To nine passengers out of ten, reliability and punctuality are more important than mere speed. The train may be three hours late, but even in postwar Europe it seldom is five days late.

Even with the marvels of radar, it seems doubtful whether reliable year-round European air services can be provided, for a long time to come. On grounds of economy, the British government decided not to install—even at Heath Row, Britain's largest projected civil airport —Fido, the well-known device of the British Ministry of Petroleum, which enable fog over an airfield to be literally burned away. This device enabled hundreds of British and American bombers returning from Germany, to make safe landings when the weather closed in completely.

MY FRIENDS IN EGLAND often speak enviously to me of my ability as a newspaper correspondent to travel about Europe. I always tell them they have no conception how disagreeable and uncomfortable travelling is today. Unfortunately, the railroads of northern Europe still are only partially restored and for the most part you must travel by air or stay home.

Air travel is by no means easy to improve. Already you can travel from London to Paris by train and boat, via Newhaven and Dieppe, about 8 hours, which compares favorably with the three days and one hour or four days and one hour which it would very likely take you by air.

Weather forecasting is one of the sciences which is supposed to have made enormous strides in its infancy. Predictions often are inaccurate; they change from hour to hour. A few days ago a flight never is taken until all the passengers are assembled at the airport and then very likely it is only a postponement and a return to hanging around the airfield half a day. This means you can only arrive late at your destination or are unable to make any use of the extra time at your point of destination.

suffered violent deaths from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Tuesday. The tabulations listed 247 killed in traffic accidents.

The other 281 violent deaths resulted from a variety of causes—plane and train crashes; shootings, stabbings, fires, drownings, explosions, exposure, falls on icy streets and accidents in the home. Two deaths resulting from alcoholism were reported.

Alexander Named Viscount

Many Empire Leaders Honored In New Year Awards by King

By JOHN DAUPHINEE

LONDON, Jan. 2.—(CP)—Field Marshal Sir Harold Alexander, governor - general - designate of Canada, was created a Viscount and two Canadian cabinet members—Finance Minister Ilsley and Justice Minister St. Laurent—were made members of the Imperial Privy Council in the King's New Year's honors list announced yesterday.

THE MAIN BRITISH list was the longest in memory, covering 131 close-printed pages. It contained thousands of names of men and women as architects of the Commonwealth's victory. Both members of the fighting forces and civilians received awards and there were special supplements with many hundreds of other names recommended by the Dominions.

India, the Dominions and the colonies were heavily represented in the long list of honors to service men and women and civilians, and tribute was paid to scientists who worked on atomic energy, empire statesmen and civil defence workers.

CANADA PLACED HIGH in the honors list with 1,241 Canadian names announced as receiving awards. The only Canadian civilian awards went to cabinet members, members of the Merchant Navy and the auxiliary services.

The RCAF headed the list for Canada with 488 while the Canadian Army had 440 and the Navy 258. Twenty-six awards were made to Canadian Merchant Navy men. A Canadian civilian list will be announced later.

Britain's chief planner of victory, Winston Churchill, was given the Order of Merit. When he resigned as prime minister last July, Mr. Churchill declined to accept the Order of the Garter, highest order of chivalry, which would have made him Sir Winston.

THE HONOR TO Mr. Churchill follows the precedent set after the First Great War by David Lloyd George, who accepted only the Order of Merit out of all the honors a grateful nation offered him. It remained until the last months of his life that Lloyd George consented to receive an earldom.

The order of merit, which carries no precedence or rank, is restricted to 24 members and new companions can be created only when vacancies are caused by death. This year two new members enter it—Mr. Churchill and Marshall of the Royal Air Force Lord Portal, who had the distinction of simultaneously receiving promotion from baron to viscount. He is chief of staff of the R.A.F.

FIELD MARSHAL ALEXANDER, 53-year-old conqueror of Italy under whose leadership the 1st Canadian corps fought, was one of six new viscounts in the honors list—five of them military leaders and one a newspaper magnate. Sir Harold's elevation had been forecast since all former Canadian governors-general have been peers.

The other four viscounts besides Field Marshal Alexander and Lord Portal are:

Field Marshal Montgomery who had over-all command of the Canadian army in northwest Europe and who engineered German defeats from El Alamein to the vicinity of Berlin. He's plans to visit Canada next spring.

Field Marshal Lord Alanbrooke, chief of the imperial general staff since 1941, who has just completed a tour of commonwealth defences in the Far East.

Admiral of the Fleet Lord Cunningham, who wiped out the Italian navy in the Mediterranean.

Lord Southwood, chairman of Odhams Press, Ltd., which publishes the London Daily Herald, chief labor newspaper in Britain, chairman of the Red Cross penny-a-week campaign and labor whip in the House of Lords.

SEVEN NEW BARONS were created—four of them war leaders. These were Admiral Sir Bruce Fraser, commander of the British Pacific fleet; Marshal of the Royal Air Force Sir Arthur Tedder, deputy supreme commander to Gen. Eisenhower until the German defeat; Admiral of the Fleet Sir John Tovey, who controls the navy's small ships, and Field Marshal Sir Henry Maitland-Wilson, who held many Mediterranean appointments before going to Washington as chief of the British Joint Mission.

The three new civilian barons are Colin Campbell, 78-year-old president of the British Bankers Association; John Davies, cotton manufacturer and prominent member of the Independent Labor Party, and Philip Inman, chairman of Charing Cross Hospital, who has extensive interests in publishing and commercial companies.

R. G. MUNRO, financial adviser to the United Kingdom high commissioner in Ottawa, was named a Companion of St. Michael and St. George.

Mr. Ilsley and Mr. St. Laurent were among six persons appointed to the Imperial Privy Council. They now may use "right honorable" before their names, a privilege previously held only by Prime Minister Mackenzie King among the present Canadian cabinet.

The other new PCs were J. A. Beasley, Australian defence minister; Sir Travers Humphreys, a high court judge in the United Kingdom; William Jordon, New Zealand high commissioner in London, and Walter Nash, finance minister of New Zealand.

THE COMPANION of honor was conferred upon Professor A. V. Hill, secretary of the Royal Society, for scientific services to the United Kingdom.

Five notable British women received honors. Lady Louis Mountbatten, wife of Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten, supreme Allied commander in southeast Asia, was created a dame commander of the Royal Victorian Order for her Red Cross work, a rare distinction.

FOUR NEW DAMES of the British Empire are actress Edith Evans, the Countess of Limerick, deputy chairman of the joint Red Cross and Saint John war organization, the Duchess of Richmond and Gordon, and Mrs. Leslie Whateley, chief controller of the Auxiliary Territorial Service, British women's army organization.

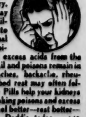

Wing officer E. C. Bather, who helped form the RCAF women's division and who is Scotland Yard's first woman superintendent, was awarded the OBE.

Holiday Fatalities In United States Beyond 500 Mark

TIRE RATIONING LIFTED JANUARY 1

A STATEMENT BY THE HON. C. D. HOWE...

In his official statement, Mr. Howe stresses that lifting of tire rationing does not mean that present stocks are such that all demands can be met immediately. "Production is picking up steadily, and if the tire-buying public will continue to co-operate during the first stages, by ordering tires only when really needed, I am confident that normal conditions will be rapidly restored," the minister said.

Remember . . when you buy tires you are making a long-time investment in mileage, safety and dependability . . . make sure of the best . . .

LT. AUSTIN H. FORD, now a lieutenant commander, is a Calgarian, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ford of that city. Prior to enlisting he was paymaster with the Chrysler Motor Company at Windsor, Ont., from which point he joined the Canadian Navy. He has seen service since June, 1941, in various parts of Canada and Newfoundland. His wife and two children, Barbara Ann and Harry Austin, reside at 10152 113 street.

LT. BRUCE C. WHITAKER, Edmonton barrister, is one of those included in the promotions section of the honors list as being appointed an acting lieutenant commander (Shore Patrol). Lt. Cmdr. Whitaker is the son of Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Whittaker 10340 124 street. He was graduated in law from the University of Alberta and was gold medallist of his class.

LT. W. G. MORROW, whose citation awarded a Mention in Dispatches, served in the navy since early in 1943. He is a law graduate from the University of Alberta and before entering the service became a partner in his father's legal firm of Morrow and Morrow.

He was a member of the crew of the minesweeper Georgian, which lists among other achievements the distinction of being the first Canadian ship to refuel a plane at sea. It had on board the crew for the rescue of American flier who had crashed into the sea and was taken from a drifting ice floe.

THE GEORGIAN was the first minesweeper in the convoy of vessels to cut a gap in the minefields guarding the Normandy coast on D-Day.

Lt. Morrow has now been placed on the retired list and has resumed his law practice here.

HIS CITATION READS: Lt. Morrow has served for two years on H.M.C.S. Minesweeper "Georgian" in the North Atlantic and in minesweeping during the invasion of France. During this time he showed unexcelled resource, outstanding zeal, leadership and devotion to duty.

Roy Percy Garrett, 9712 87 avenue, whose citation for the award of Mentioned in Dispatches follows, enlisted in the RCNVR early in the war and saw service in Canada and afloat for more than five years, before his discharge two months ago. He served as an engine room artificer aboard HMCS Orangville.

His citation: For continued good service over a period of fourteen months at sea. He has shown initiative and cheerfulness in carrying out engine repairs at sea, and has set an example to his subordinates.

PO. R. G. BACKUS, who formerly lived at 10706 69 avenue, has served for the last 17 years with the RCNVR. He is now stationed in Vancouver. His citation follows:

For outstanding zeal and efficiency. Petty Officer Backus has served 17 years in the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve. Throughout this war his service in His Majesty's Canadian destroyers has been exemplary.

PETTY OFFICER R. F. Wilson lives with his wife at 10332 95 avenue and would not discuss his service in the navy, when he was queried on Monday evening. He left the navy in July of this year.

His citation: For continuous good service over a long period. Petty Officer Wilson has served in the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve since March, 1938. He has been a conscientious leader to his subordinates, by his unfailing cheerfulness and devotion to duty. He gave freely of his time to teach his fellow shipmates and by his interest and greatly increasing the efficiency of his branch in HMCS Ontario.

Citation for Ldg. Smn. L. Baldwin, 9741 95 street, Edmonton, whose war service is as follows: This rating joined the defensively equipped Merchant ships service in January, 1943 and served continually at sea for a period of half years. He has been at all times cheerful and willing, pursuing his duties with devotion regardless of conditions. His initiative and conduct have set a fine example to those serving with him.

Lt.-Cmdr. F. B. Watt, who was awarded the MBE for non-operational service, is a well-known Edmonton writer. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Balmer Watt live at 11668 100 avenue. His wife lives in Ottawa.

LT.-COL. LOUIS YOUNGER, OBE, DSO, MC, 11004 86 avenue, has served with distinction since the beginning of this war and for a while was commandant of the Grande Prairie Army Training Centre.

A distinguished veteran of World War I, he served with the 10th (Alberta) Battalion of the Second Brigade winning the DSO and the MC and Two Bars. He later served as Brigade Major of the 9th Canadian Infantry Brigade of the 3rd Canadian Division.

MAJ. JAMES S. PEPPARD, MBE, enlisted in the army in Edmonton early in the war and served more than four years before being discharged last summer. He was well known here and in northern Alberta. He married the former Marjorie Darbyshire of this city in 1935. He is now working in Calgary.

Captain K. G. Surbeck, MBE whose wife and family reside at 9835 79 avenue, enlisted early in the war and has seen service in most of the European theatres. He is expected to return to Canada in late February or early March.

VETERAN OF BOTH great wars, RSM H. W. Hunter, MBE, 8929 89 street, enlisted in the army in September, 1939, and saw service at many stations in both eastern and western Canada and also in Newfoundland. He served more than two years during the First Great War fighting overseas with the famous 10th Battalion. He was wounded at Hill 70 in 1917.

RSM Hunter, who is now spending 30 days leave with his family here, expects to be discharged some time this month.

CSM H. L. MACHNEE, CWAC, is still in the army, doing administrative work at Camp Borden, Ontario, where she has been stationed for some months. Her husband, who was in an artillery anti-aircraft unit in France was killed at Caen nearly two years ago.

Her mother, Mrs. E. Evans, lives at 11425 89 street in Edmonton. Three of her brothers are still in the army. She enlisted in Edmonton over three and one-half years ago.

CAPT. L. B. YULE, MBE, was associated with the provincial department of education before the outbreak of war and was the first superintendent of the Vegreville school division when the schools in that area came under the enlarged district system.

Lt. (NS) M. Baldwin, who once lived at 13024 123 street, has since been married.

S-Sgt. J. Williams, BEM, is still overseas and is with HQ "E" Group, CRU, where he occupies an administrative post. He joined the army in 1939 just after the declaration of war and here was with No. 1 Field Hygiene Section, RCAMC.

GROUP CAPT. V. H. PATRIARCHE, OBE, AFC, ED, was awarded the AFC in the honors list issued on New Year's Day.

He had been a "bush" pilot before the war, flying out of eastern airports. A year ago he came to Edmonton to take over command of the Northwest Staging Route of the RCAF.

WING CMDR. D. R. EASTON now occupies the post of district medical officer for the Department of Veterans Affairs after having served with the RCAF for more than five years in both England and the Mediterranean. Enlisting he had been an official with the department of health in Ontario. His wife and two daughters, who came to Edmonton with him, are now living at 11128 85 avenue.

Wing Cmdr. Howard L. Watson has been flight control officer for the Northwest Staging route, RCAF for many months, after a period of training which took him to west coast stations. He has been in charge of all the complicated control systems along the whole northwest route. Before enlistment he was on the staff of The Edmonton Bulletin as circulation manager.

FO. G. J. ANDERSON, AFC, is now awaiting his civilian transport license after five years' service in the RCAF. For two of those years he was on deterrment and acted as a civilian instructor in Canada. His parents live at Wetaskiwin, but his wife and family are at 11223 91 street. Most of his service was in Western Canada, where he acted as "an instructor after he donned air force uniform.

CYRIL G. EMERY, BEM, is a former RCAF flight sergeant equipment assistant. Born in Vermilion 25 years ago, he was educated in Edmonton. He saw service in Toronto, Ottawa and Edmonton. Married to Irving White, 9651 106A avenue, is a brother, Stanley, is a pilot with Canadian Pacific Airlines at Vancouver.

L. TERCIER, BEM, who was discharged from the RCAF as a flight sergeant last October, served with a construction and maintenance unit in various parts of Canada following enlistment in January, 1942. He is a native of Fort Saskatchewan who received his education there and at Victoria high school in Edmonton. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Tercier, 10173 105 street. A brother, Sgt. A. H. Tercier, is stationed at North West Air Command headquarters.

Sgt. Harold Hopkins, BEM, is a former member of the Edmonton Grads' basketball team and is the only member of that organization to wear a uniform in this war. She joined up in January, 1942, and since that time has served at Dauphin, Man., and at Rockcliffe, near Ottawa, where she worked in RCAF headquarters. Having left the services she intends to go to MacDonald College, Montreal.

GROUP CAPTAIN W. J. "Packy" McFarlane, mentioned in dispatches, spent a year of his lengthy service in the RCAF in command of the Northwest Staging Route, following which he was posted to the command of a bombing and gunnery school at Jarvis, Ont.

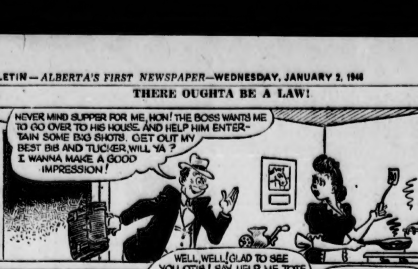

He learned to fly at Vancouver and had been associated with the criminal investigation branch of the Vancouver police when war broke out. He is now a resident in Edmonton and plans operation of a wood-working plant which will specialize in the production of non-standard types.

WO2 GEORGE D. WILLIAMS, whose mother resides at 9321 98A street, has been mentioned in dispatches after more than five years' service in the Royal Canadian Air Force. He enlisted early in the war and saw service in many parts of Canada including Toronto, Montreal, Kamloops and Vancouver. Discharged two months ago, he is now attached to the B. C. Police at Chilliwack, B.C.

Flt. Lt. J. L. Barclay, 10815 86 avenue, has received the King's Commendation for valuable service rendered in Canada and overseas. Enlisting in 1940, he served as an instructor at RCAF stations throughout Canada until December, 1944, when he was posted overseas. He returned to Canada last summer.

FLT. LT. R. E. HARMAN who was awarded the King's Commendation for Valuable Service in the Air was a graduate of Edmonton Normal school and taught at Vermilion before his enlistment. He received his wings in March, 1942 and after further training in Canada made his first tour of operations from British air bases.

He returned to Canada for a leave in April 1944 after being injured when a transport plane he was pilot-

THERE OUGHTA BE A LAW!

No Citations Given Six Executive Generals Head King's Honors List

OTTAWA, Jan. 2.—(CP)—Administrators dominated the King's Canadian New Year's army honor's list which included the names of some of the men who planned the Canadian army Pacific force.

The war clean-up list, released Monday, contained 440 names and was headed by six executive generals made Companions of the Order of the Bath. No citations were given.

They were:

Maj.-Gen. C. P. Fenwick, CBE, MC, of Toronto, director general of the army medical services.

Maj.-Gen. Ralph B. Gibson, CBE, of Ottawa, hard-working vice-chief of the general staff.

Maj.-Gen. H. F. G. Letson, CBE, MC, of Toronto, chairman of the joint staff committee at Washington.

Maj.-Gen. A. E. (Ernie) Walford, CBE, MM, of Montreal, retiring adjutant general.

Maj.-Gen. E. G. (Bunny) Weeks, CBE, MC, of Toronto and Charlottetown, former administrative chief at Canadian military headquarters in London and reported as likely successor to Gen. Walford.

Maj.-Gen. J. V. Young, CBE, of Ottawa, retired master general of ordnance.

MANY FAMOUS Canadian soldiers were included in the list of those made Companions of the Order of the British Empire (CBE). Among them were:

Maj.-Gen. Geo. Spry, DSO, of Halifax, former commander of the 3rd Division and at present commander of the repatriation unit in Britain.

Brig. D. R. Agnew of Ottawa, commander of the Saint John, N.B., army district.

Brig. R. O. G. Morton of Ottawa, commander of the Winnipeg military district.

Brig. Rev. C. G. Hepburn, MC, of Ottawa, retired senior Protestant chaplain.

Brig. Rev. R. C. MacGillivray, MC, of Antigonish, N. S., retired senior Roman Catholic chaplain.

Brig. D. G. Cunningham, DSO, of Kingston, Ont., former commandant of Royal Military College who has retired from the army.

Brig. Leslie C. Goodeve, DSO, of Halifax, chief of the Newfoundland force.

BRIG. H. D. GRAHAM, DSO, of Ottawa, deputy adjutant general.

Brig. Milton F. Gregg, VC, MC, former commander of the Brockville officers training school and now president of the University of New Brunswick.

Brig. Orville M. M. Kay, of Winnipeg, military attache at Chungking.

Brig. Sherwood Lett, DCO, MC, of Vancouver, twice wounded and retired deputy chief of the general staff.

Brig. J. L. Melville, MC, of Ottawa, former chief engineer of the Canadian Army who now is serving on the pension commission.

Brig. H. G. Nolan, MC, of Calgary, veterinary advocate general.

Brig. Lorraine Patrick of Calgary, commander of the Big Longue Pointe, Que., ordnance depot.

Brig. John M. Rockingham, DSO, of Victoria, retired commander of the 9th Infantry Brigade.

Brig. G. A. Ferguson of Saskatoon, deputy adjutant general.

Brig. W. A. Bean of Kitchener, Ont., who set up the Canadian replacement depot organization for the Pacific force.

Brig. A. J. Creighton of Vancouver, director of military training and organizer of the reinforcement depot for the Pacific force.

TWO MEN who are writing the Canadian history of the war were also included in the honors. Col. A. F. Duguid, DSO, of Ottawa, chief of the army historical section, and Col. C. P. Stacey of Ottawa, historian, were each made officers of the Order of the British Empire (OBE).

The man who ensured the delivery of the army's mail—Col. Edward J. Underwood of Ottawa, also was awarded an OBE.

A writer of English commentator was included in the list of Members of the Order of the British Empire (MBE). He was Maj. Brian Meredith of Ottawa, chief of the forces radio network in Holland.

Members of the nursing services and the CWAC also were included in the list of awards.

returned man. "And though I was alright, I was the only one in our group who was."

SIXTY SERVICEMEN with similar stories had been met at the CNR train during the afternoon of New Year's Day. The trains which brought them back home were specials routed through to the Pacific coast with Vancouver and Victoria units aboard. They too had crossed on the Queen Elizabeth. Some 1,500 soldiers for the west were on two afternoon trains.

Pte. C. G. Bassinger, 11520 93 street, had not seen his five-year-old daughter for more than four years, and was looking forward eagerly to greeting her and her mother. He had served with the First Canadian Corps in Italy and later in the northwest European field with the Ordnance Corps.

NEVER WOUNDED "but scared lots of times" was the confession made by Sgt. F. W. Graham, Streamstown, who had been with the 1st Canadian Divisional Signals in Italy and later in Holland, Belgium and Germany. He intends to go back to the farm, saying "he is more than glad to get back there."

TWINS, Irving White, 9651 106A street, was met by an enthusiastic crowd of relatives, including one brother now released from the services, who served with the Loyal Edmonton Regiment in the same theatres of war. White had been overseas five years with the RCA SC, serving with the 1st Canadian Armoured Brigade Company through the Sicilian and Italian campaigns.

He intends to return to school, he says. He will probably take advantage of the facilities offered by the rehabilitation schemes to attend the University of Alberta in the study of engineering.

Sgmn. A. Marchak of Two Hills was pleasantly surprised when nearly a score of relatives from that town and from the city were at the station to greet him. He had been with the First Canadian Army Signals Unit and had been away for nearly four years. On VE Day he had been with his unit at Arnhem, Holland, working night and day trying to put communications through.

V-E DAY WAS SPENT by Gnr. V. A. Stafford, Breton, on the other side of Aurich, Germany. He had been away from his northern Alberta home for three and one-half years, serving with the 4th Light Anti-Aircraft and with the 11th Anti-Aircraft Regiment.

Ross Pilling, 19-year-old son of Sgt. A. Pilling, 11667 85 street was overjoyed to greet his returning father after a four-year absence. Sgt. Pilling had served with the 13th Field Regiment, RCA, and had landed with that unit in France on D-Day. High casualties in the unit had left him unscathed, he said.

Others who returned on New Years Day included Gnr. R. J. A. Gauthier, Boyle; Pte. C. J. Critchley, 10204 125 street and Cpl. E. Scharman, 9433 100A avenue.

ing crashed during a take-off. He then returned to Europe.

SQDN. LDR. C. R. THOMPSON who also received the King's commendation for Valuable service in air, served overseas in late 1943 and early 1944.

When the spring term re-opens at the University of Alberta, Mr. Thompson intends to return to duty in the faculty of engineering. His wife and two sons live at 11507 72 street.

FLT.-SGT. O. S. HARGREAVES, who received the King's Commendation for Valuable Service in the Air, spent three years in the air force as an instructor at 2 AOS, Edmonton. Born in New Zealand, he first came to Canada in 1929. He has been in charge of parachute work at the Northwest Air Command for some months.

Wing Cmdr. C. G. Durham, OBE, MM, is well known in this city, though his home is now in Calgary. He was stationed here in an administrative capacity for over a year before his retirement in October, 1945. A flyer with the Royal Flying Corps during the First Great War he was awarded the Croix de Guerre and was given the MM for his services in the ranks prior to joining the pioneer aviators of the First Great War.

Sailors never whistle aboard ship not because of superstition, but because the sound might be confused with a bosun's pipe, the engine-room telephone, or the telltale squeal of an improperly lubricated piece of machinery.

fourth day we got as far as Isires, some 40 miles west of Marseilles. Here a gust of wind blew the tail of our Dakota into a truck. RAF Transport Command did not have the necessary spare parts.

NORMALLY the RAF and the American Air Transport Command, when shortages developed, help each other out in the matter of spares. Unfortunately, the American colonel was away in Nice, and his deputy was in Wiesbaden. The lieutenant in charge of the American unit was doubtful whether he could take the responsibility of loaning the RAF the necessary spares. Eventually, however, he took the plunge and we got to Rome the following evening around nine o'clock.

Here we found Field Marshal Lord Alan Brooke Chief of the Imperial General Staff, on the last lap of a 40,000-mile round trip which had taken him in a British Stork from England to Burma, Singapore, Tokyo and Australia. In the whole of the trip, he never once was delayed by bad weather until he got back to Italy, where he had been snowed in for four days.

THERE SEEMS no doubt that, of all the flying weather in the world, that which prevails in Europe in the winter is the worst. Planes are going to have a restrictive influence on the development and expansion of European air traffic. To make passengers sit for, often, reliability and punctuality are more important than mere speed. The train may be three hours late, but even in post-war Europe it seldom is five days late.

Even with the marvels of radar, it seems doubtful whether reliable year-round European air services can be provided, for a long time to come. On grounds of economy, the British government decided not to install—even at Heath Row, Britain's largest projected civil airport —Fido, the wartime invention of the British Ministry of Petroleum, which enable fog over an airfield to be literally burned away. This device enabled hundreds of British and American bombers returning from Germany, to make safe landings when the weather closed in completely.

MY FRIENDS IN BOLAND often speak enviously to me of my ability as a newspaper correspondent to travel about Europe. I always tell them that their conception how disagreeable and uncomfortable travelling is today. Unfortunately, the railroads of northern Europe still are only partially restored and for the most part you must travel by air or stay home.

But things are beginning to improve. Already you can travel from London to Paris by train and boat, via Newhaven and Dieppe, in about 14 hours, which compares favorably with the three days and one hour or four days and one hour which it would very likely take you by air.

Weather forecasting is one of the sciences which in recent years has made advances; but it still is in its infancy. Predictions often are inaccurate; change from fog to sun to hour. A decision to cancel a flight never is taken until all the passengers are assembled at the airport and then very likely it is only a postponement and you are kept hanging around the airfield half a day. This means you usually arrive late at your destination but are unable to make any use of the extra time at your point of departure.

ALL OF WHICH explains why I

Alexander Named Viscount

Many Empire Leaders Honored In New Year Awards by King

By JOHN DAUPHINEE

LONDON, Jan. 2.—(CP)—Field Marshal Sir Harold Alexander, governor - general - designate of Canada, was created a Viscount and two Canadian cabinet members—Finance Minister Ilsley and Justice Minister St. Laurent—were made members of the Imperial Privy Council in the King's New Year's honors list announced yesterday.

THE MAIN BRITISH list was the longest in memory, covering 131 close-printed pages. It contained thousands of names of men and women as architects of the Commonwealth's victory. Both members of the fighting forces and civilians received awards and there were special supplements with many hundreds of other names recommended by the Dominions.

India, the Dominions and the colonies were heavily represented in the long list of honors to service men and women and civilians, and tribute was paid to scientists who worked on atomic energy, empire statesmen and civil defence workers.

CANADA PLACED HIGH in the honors list with 1,241 Canadian names announced as receiving awards. The only Canadian civilian awards went to cabinet ministers members of the Merchant Navy and the auxiliary services.

The RCAF headed the list for Canada with 488 while the Canadian Army had 440 and the Navy 258. Twenty-six awards were made to Canadian Merchant Navy men. A Canadian civilian list will be announced later.

Britain's chief planner of victory, Winston Churchill, was given the Order of Merit. When he resigned as prime minister last July, Mr. Churchill declined to accept the Order of the Garter, highest order of chivalry which would have made him Sir Winston.

THE HONOR TO Mr. Churchill follows the precedent set after the First Great War by David Lloyd George, who accepted only the Order of Merit out of all the honors a grateful nation offered him. It was not until the last months of his life that Lloyd George consented to receive an earldom.

The order of merit, which carries no precedence or rank, is restricted to 24 members and new companions can be created only when vacancies occur caused by death. This year the new members enter it—Mr. Churchill and Marshall of the Royal Air Force Lord Portal, who had the distinction of simultaneously receiving promotion from baron to viscount. He is chief of staff of the R.F.

FIELD MARSHAL ALEXANDER, 53-year-old conqueror of Italy under whose leadership the Canadian corps fought, was one of six new viscounts in the honors list—five of them military leaders and one a newspaper magnate. Sir Harold's elevation had been forecast, since all former Canadian governors-general have been peers. The other four viscounts besides Field Marshal Alexander and Lord Portal are:

Field Marshal Montgomery who led overall command of the Canadian army in northwest Europe and who engineered German defeats from El Alamein to the vicinity of Berlin. He plans to visit Canada next spring.

Field Marshal Lord Alanbrooke, chief of the Imperial general staff since 1941, who has just completed a tour of commonwealth defences in the Far East.

Admiral of the Fleet Lord Cunningham, who wiped out the Italian navy in the Mediterranean.

Lord Southwood, chairman of Odhams Press, Ltd., which publishes the London Daily Herald, chief labor newspaper in Britain, chairman of the Red Cross penny-a-week campaign and labor whip in the House of Lords.

SEVEN NEW BARONS were created—four of them war leaders. These were Admiral Sir Bruce Fraser, commander of the British Pacific fleet; Marshal of the Royal Air Force Sir Arthur Tedder, deputy supreme commander to Gen. Eisenhower until the German defeat; Admiral of the Fleet Sir John Tovey, who controls the navy's small ships, and Field Marshal Sir Henry Maitland-Wilson, who held many Mediterranean appointments before going to Washington as chief of the British Joint Mission.

The three new civilian barons are Colin Campbell, 78-year-old president of the British Bankers Association; John Davies, cotton manufacturer and prominent member of the Independent Labor Party, and Philip Inman, chairman of Charing Cross Hospital, who has extensive interests in publishing and commercial companies.

R. G. MUNRO, financial adviser to the United Kingdom high commissioner in Ottawa, was named a Companion of St. Michael and St. George.

Mr. Ilsley and Mr. St. Laurent were among six persons appointed to the Imperial Privy Council. They now may use "right honorable" before their names, a privilege previously held only by Prime Minister Mackenzie King among the present Canadian cabinet.

The other new PCs were J. A. Beasley, Australian defence minister; Sir Travers Humphreys, a high court judge in the United Kingdom; William Jordon, New Zealand high commissioner in London, and Walter Nash, finance minister of New Zealand.

THE COMPANION of honor was conferred upon Professor A. V. Hill, secretary of the Royal Society, for scientific services to the United Kingdom.

Five notable British women received honors. Lady Louis Mountbatten, wife of Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten, supreme Allied commander in southeast Asia, was created a dame commander of the Royal Victorian Order for her Red Cross work, a rare distinction.

FOUR NEW DAMES of the British Empire are: actress Edith Evans, the Countess of Limerick, deputy chairman of the joint Red Cross and Saint John war organization, the Duchess of Richmond and Gordon and Mrs. Leslie Whateley, chief controller of the Auxiliary Territorial Service, British women's army organization.

Wing officer E. C. Bather, who helped form the RCAF women's division and who is Scotland Yard's first woman superintendent, was awarded the OBE.

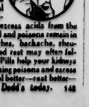

Holiday Fatalities In United States Beyond 500 Mark

CHICAGO, Jan. 2. — (AP) — A more sombre note to the New Year's holiday celebration was recorded today as the number of deaths in the United States from violent causes passed the 500 mark.

A survey across the country showed that at least 528 persons suffered violent deaths from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Tuesday. The tabulations listed 247 killed in traffic accidents.

The other 281 violent deaths resulted from a variety of causes—plane and train crashes; shootings, stabbings, fires, drownings, explosions, exposure, falls on icy streets and accidents in the home. Two deaths resulting from alcoholism were reported.

"Hounded" by HEADACHES

Blinding pain, constant throbbing can make life a misery. Many headaches may be caused by the failure of the kidneys to perform their normal duty of filtering poisonous wastes and excess acids from the blood. If kidneys fail and poisons remain in the system, headaches, backache, rheumatic pains, disturbed rest may often follow. Dodd's Kidney Pills help your kidneys clear out trouble-making poisons and excess acids so that you feel better—rest better—work better. Get Dodd's today. 148

TIRE RATIONING LIFTED JANUARY 1

A STATEMENT BY THE HON. C. D. HOWE...

In his official statement, Mr. Howe stresses that lifting of tire rationing does not mean that present stocks are such that all demands can be met immediately. "Production is picking up steadily, and if the tire-buying public will continue to co-operate during the first stages, by ordering tires only when really needed, I am confident that normal conditions will be rapidly restored," the minister said.

Remember . . when you buy tires you are making a long-time investment in mileage, safety and dependability . . . make sure of the best . . .

Building Priorities

The system of priorities for ten essential building materials which will be instituted by the United States on January 15 should provide interesting study for Canadian housing authorities who are still struggling with the bottlenecks and shortages of material which continue to hold up construction in this country.

The chief problem with regard to housing in the United States, which next to subsidized building funds is also the chief problem in Canada, is to find means of co-ordinating the supply of materials available. Materials which are plentiful in one state may be scarce elsewhere. And this is exactly the way it is in Canada.

To obviate this difficulty, federal authorities in each state will issue priority certificates to returned men or to builders representing them to enable them to get specific percentages of the ten materials usually in short supply.

Under the American plan, this assistance is confined to builders of homes costing less than $10,000. Most of the 400,000 houses planned under this scheme will cost less than half this amount.

In this country, the first job would be to bring some co-ordination into the efforts of various federal housing agencies which have been competing against each other for priorities in materials to the detriment of construction everywhere.

Some such system of priorities in Canada, plus the availability of government money to construct modern homes to rent at from $18 to $25 a month, would go a long way towards solving the disastrous housing problem in Canada.

One Problem for 1946

Toronto police are holding four teen-age boys whom they accuse of having murdered a storekeeper; and three more, of whom two are charged with armed robbery and the third with carrying an offensive weapon.

Toronto is one of the older and larger cities in Canada, one where law-enforcement has been good, and where the sentiment of the community has never been tolerant of crime. There as elsewhere the crime "wave" has appeared, with boys conspicuous among the most serious offenders.

The "wave" is in fact nation-wide. It is a challenge to officers whose business is to catch and punish law-breakers; but not less a challenge to parents, schools, churches, community organizations, and to the public generally. The epidemic has to be stopped. To stop it will require the moral influence of private citizens, as well as vigilance on the part of policemen and firmness on the part of the courts.

Without such correlated action the trend toward criminality will spread; it always does when neglected. If life and property are to be as safe in Canada in the future as they have been in the past, there will have to be a revival of respect for law—and also a revival of that inherent regard for the rights of others that has been one of the fine characteristics of Canadian youth.

V

Both Stand to Gain

Negotiations are starting at London through which it is hoped to arrange five-year contracts for the supply of Canadian bacon, eggs, cheese and wheat to Britain. If successful this will give Canadian farmers the advantages of an assured market overseas for very considerable amounts of these products. That can be assumed because the bargaining would not be worth while if it were not foreseen that Britain's import requirements will be large.

The years war the longest term covered by such a contract in wartime. Evidently it is thought that five years will be needed to get British agriculture and industry functioning on such a scale that these goods can be traded in the usual way in the markets of the world. Otherwise the British authorities would not want to tie themselves up by placing advance orders for large quantities of such products in one country.

Negotiations are possible because Canada is able and willing to sell on time. Britain at present has neither cash nor goods to give in exchange. The advantages of the plan are therefore not all on one side. Canada stands to gain by the assurance of a market; but Britain stands to gain by not having to worry about paying for food imports while all its resources are needed for the re-establishment of its productive industry.

A mutually satisfactory outcome of the bargaining would thus seem to be likely.

V

Trying to Restore Order

France cut down the exchange value of the franc, at the same time it ratified the Bretton Woods plan and completed an agreement for a $550 millions loan in the United States.

The loan will be received in the form of goods, not money. As the goods are sold in France they will be paid for in francs worth approximately four-fifths of a cent each. The former rate was 2 cents each. When the loan is repaid this will cost French taxpayers 119 francs to the dollar, instead of only 50. This suggests that the loan could not be obtained on the basis of repayment at the 2-cent franc scale.

Devaluation of the franc, coupled with the loan of credit for imports, looks like a move to get rid of the flood of currency that has been one of the difficulties of the De Gaulle government. As French consumers buy the imported goods they will surrender nearly two and a half times as many francs as they would have to do under the former rating. The ultimate effect will be to increase the purchasing power of the currency unit as the number in general circulation goes down.

The Bretton Woods agreement ratified, the new rate is that at which the franc will pass in international trade. French trade abroad was ruined by the war. That export could be rebuilt on the basis of the franc being accepted as worth two cents was apparently hopeless. The slash in its rated buying power abroad will help to revive export, and France, like other countries, must export heavily to speed recovery.

This drastic downward revaluation of the franc is another instalment of the penalty France must pay because its internal affairs were disloc ed and its foreign commerce destroyed in the calculated ruin thrust upon it by the Nazis.

V

In the Canadian military court at Aurich, Maj.-Gen. Kurt Meyer has been sentenced to death for the murder of Canadian prisoners of war. The sentence is subject to confirmation by the Canadian commander in the European area. Whatever the ultimate outcome, Meyer has had a fair trial, in accord with the traditions of Canadian justice. He was defended by counsel of his own choosing and called such witnesses as he desired.

V

Hon. Douglas Abbott was not giving out news when he said the opportunities for employment will be fewer if the Dominion and the provinces have to compete in finding ways to levy taxes. But this is something that will stand repeating, and which federal and provincial representatives should keep in mind when they go into conference again. A multiplicity of taxes discourages enterprise. The fewer the levies, the less difficult it will be to carry on business. Taxation must in any case be lighter in future than it was in pre-war times. That is an added reason why the provinces and the Dominion should not vie with each other in devising methods of attack on the pocket of the taxpayer.

THE UNSEEN AUDIENCE

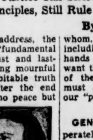

Right for One Is Right of All Is—

The Essence of Justice

And Only Through Justice Can There Be Peace. But Moscow Reports Indicate That "Deals", Not Principles, Still Rule and Compromise Is the Order of the Day

By Dorothy Thompson

In his Christmas address, the Pope laid down three "fundamental prerequisites for a just and lasting peace," after calling mournful attention to the indubitable truth that many months after the end of hostilities we have no peace but only "post-war."

Dorothy Thompson

No one familiar with human experience can contradict his theses. First: Motives of hate, vengeance, rivalry will not bring us peace; he who explains expiation of crime must take care not to do himself what he denounces in others. one who seeks reparations must rest his claim on moral principles; one who asks for security should not forget that it lies in one's own internal force—safeguarding family, children, labor.

SECOND: That feed must be paid by peacemakers to the overwhelming majority of men.

THIRD: That the whole surface of the globe, reddened with blood-shed, cries aloud at the tyranny of the totalitarian state.

ALL REPORTS coming from Moscow indicate an attempt to secure peace, not upon the tri-partite acceptance of these or any other principles, but upon another series of compromises better called deals.

Thus Mr. Molotov seems prepared to compromise on Japan for Mr. Byrnes' recognition of the Jugoslav regime. That Jugoslavia is inhabited by some 20 million human beings, an overwhelming majority of whom, according to all accounts, including official reports in the hands of our government, do not want this regime, is not considered of the least consequence. They must accept the chastisement of our "peace."

GENERAL DE GAULLE is desperately attempting to save the chief industrial basin of all Europe—the Rhine and Ruhr—by detaching it from the Reich, and internationalizing it. On the functioning of that industrial complex, and on the guarantee that it shall not be a source of re-armament against the west, depends the economic life of France and her security. But France is shut out of consideration, despite the acres of white crosses on her soil, marking the graves of allied can boys who died to save that corner of our common civilization, and it is suggested that if France does not shut up, she will be deprived of her veto in the security council.

IT IS WELL known that Britain with her characteristic interest in the fate of Europe is being increasingly pushed aside. The Big Five reduce themselves first, to the Big Three, next to the Big Two—eventually, perhaps, to the Big One?

THE FUTURE of Germany remains utterly obscure. James Marshall reported this week from there that the growing aspect of the German mind is loss of faith in anything at all. That is Nihilism.

THE ROSTER of crimes against humanity solemnly read at Nuremburg as the protest of outraged conscience rings hollow, for what crimes do not continue? Now, it is the turn of the Allies. Tens of thousands of men are carted off for forced labor; millions of women and children, expelled from their ancestral homes, without ration cards or shelter, in plundered lands and freezing weather, die as died the victims of Himmler's concentration camps; no attempt is made to separate the guilty from the innocent, and one of the very highest American authorities has said that the administrative burden of trying to divide innocent from guilty is almost insuperable.

But the division of innocent from guilty is the whole task of justice! The massacre of the innocents—the children, at least—is criminal. Will no one heed the noble words of the Chief Rabbi of Berlin, Dr. Leo Daeck, who languished for years in a concentration camp, and was saved by what seems a miracle?

"The right to punish is only incumbent on man if he is willing to aid. To punish and to aid belong together. Only together do they prevent justice . . .

"Every wrong committed against somebody, a group or a single person, is a wrong committed against the totality of men, against every single man. Only where the consciousness of this is alive, a pure righteousness results . . . some force of law."

So spoke, centuries ago, John Donne. We never send to ask for whom the bell tolls. It tolls for thee."

THE CONSCIOUSNESS of righteousness being dumb—it is not dead: it sleeps—no justice can be done even to Nazi victims. Until the Nuremburg criminals are tried, but all the great victorious powers cannot find a haven for a hundred thousand Jews still in concentration camps, while in Indonesia Great Britain makes new Lidices.

You have been great, Great Britain. Be great again.

WHO IS GUILTY?

I am guilty. You are guilty. We are guilty. Shall I, who never failed to protest the monstrosities of the Hitler regime, or to predict it would bring no peace, believe now that measures flaunting every human right will bring happiness and security to mankind. Shall we, so sensible of the guilt of others, be insensible of our own?

There is no right for any man that is not the right of all men. There is no injustice to any man, which is not an injustice to me.

That is the essence of the sense of justice, and only through justice, is there peace.

Englishmen Do Not Care

SUNDAY EMPIRE NEWS, MANCHESTER

The Englishman usually accepts what the foreigner says about him—to his detriment. We have had examples enough of this strange complacency during the war. Not long ago we were preparing to pay food currency (it was going to the dollar area, too) to be shown in a film how an American beat the Japanese in Burma without our assistance, and to this day we have not received anything like fair credit for what we did in the war—in the newspapers and official comment of other countries.

To this day the average American has not mention but one of our allies—doesn't know that the major scientific and medical discoveries of the past six years were made by us.

And, frankly, apart from an occasional splendid individual the Englishman does not care. It is apparently enough for him that he knows he produced these inventions and made these discoveries: he is content to do without the acknowledgment.

Pope Pius Moves to Meet Needs of—

The Post-War World

Change in Constitution of Sacred College of Cardinals Move Which Might See Next Pope Come From America or Even China

By Edgar Ansel Mowrer

Pope Pius's replenishment of the Sacred College of Cardinals to 70 members, the maximum allowed by canon law, and a geographical levelling of the new princes of the church, both show a determination to meet the new needs of the post-war world.

To those who, like this correspondent, lived for years under the shadow of the Vatican in Rome, it is hard to realize that from now on the majority of the Sacred College will no longer be Italians. Unquestionably the next Pope could be an American or a Chinese. It has been centuries since a "foreigner" was Pope of Rome or since the Sacred College was anything but Italian dominated.

This situation was not so much planned as happened. The Roman Catholic church as an international body could not afford to fall under the influence of any great power. Italy was not a great power. Until 1870 it was not even a united country. Italians could therefore be counted on to think more "internationally" than priests of other countries. But after 1870 and particularly after Mussolini fermented Italian patriotism into strong drink, certain Italian prelates indulged in a form of patriotic exuberance that vexed Roman Catholics in other countries.

Some change in the constitution of the Sacred College was therefore in the cards. Between the two wars, when authoritarian governments were springing up in Italy, Portugal, Spain, Austria, Poland, France and Germany, the Holy See more or less "went along".

THE DOWNFALL of the totalitarian states made it incumbent upon the Pope to disclaim himself rigorously from a political conception he never approved.

A first step was a recent pronouncement in favor of democracy "properly understood."

The naming of no less than 32 new, mostly non-Italian cardinals and the accompanying Papal Allocation makes the situation pretty clear.

Totalitarianism is condemned as incompatible with a "healthy democracy." This looks to me like the kiss of death to dictator Francisco Franco.

The centres of power have largely moved out of Europe. Into the Soviet Union the Roman Catholic church can hardly penetrate, as matters now stand. But there are now two Polish cardinals, one Czech cardinal and one Armenian cardinal, all of them in touch with Soviet affairs. While the situation in France, Spain, Belgium, and Italy remained unchanged, the Netherlands for the first time, obtained a cardinal of their own.

The two Germans are entered to their normal four, one whom, Clement Augustine von Galen, though anti-Nazi, is an ardent German nationalist and certainly no democrat.

Meanwhile, the extra-European regions have been richly endowed. The number of U.S. cardinals has been raised to a top figure of five, of Canadian cardinals to two, and of Australian cardinals to one, for a total of seven. There is a cardinal for Portuguese East Africa and an Australian cardinal.

THE POPE OF ROME is not only the spiritual head of a religion, he is also the temporal head of a state. As both, he engages not only in the saving of souls but in appropriate political action.

Pius XII will oppose the forces that seem to block what he believes is the church's divine mission, both spiritually and politically.

Some of these forces can be identified.

There are the various Protestant churches which the Pope regards as heresies. With so much of the temporal power concentrated in Protestant United States, it is natural that His Holiness should desire a strong U.S. representation. However, the activity of U.S. Protestants in the traditional roman Catholic states of Latin America, where they will grow by some Catholics. Conceivably the church's centre of gravity might have to be shifted from Europe to Latin America.

Particularly so, should west communism spread further into Europe. Pius XII has made it clear that, like his predecessor, he regards Moscow the centre of relations to the Roman Catholic faith. The church will do everything it can to oppose Soviet influence.

FINALLY, in his recent Allocution, Pope Pius makes a scarcely contemptuous reference to what he calls "musty liberalism with

This'n That

For some time the two women sitting in front of him in the cinema had annoyed him with their constant chatter.

At last he could stand it no longer. Leaning forward, he said politely:

"Pardon me, but I can't hear."

"I should hope you can't," replied the woman, coldly; "this conversation is strictly private."

Some of the true stories are really the funniest. A speaker, discoursing on the transitory nature of earthly things, said: "Look now at the great cities of antiquity. Where are they? Why, some of them have perished so completely it is probable they never existed.

sought "without the church or in opposition to her, a unity built on lay culture and secularized humanism." This explains why Pope Pius makes responsible for totalitarianism—a surprising charge in view of the undeniable fact that totalitarianism was promoted overwhelmingly by Catholics in Roman Catholic countries. But "musty liberalism" remains one of Pius's admitted adversaries in the church's present fight for world unity against totalitarianism.

Electric Rate Reduction

Editor Bulletin: Perhaps Bulletin readers would be interested in an elector's reaction to the proceedings, expressions and policies, of the city councillors, at a special meeting called in the Council Chamber at 4:30 p.m. December 28, 1945, for the consideration of the electric rate reduction of $300,000 as proposed and recommended by the city commissioners.

It would seem that our city councillors were curiously anxious to express their democratic, Christian, and political views, and to see that each and every individual user of utilities received his or her proper percentage of reduction in that proposed new rate-cut.

From the figures presented by the Commissioners it seems there were some 300 electric range owners whose rates, instead of being reduced, were going to be raised under the new schedule some 10c per month on the average. This was such a serious matter that the whole rate reduction to all peoples were held up for reconsideration.

But Fellow Electors: just why did these same councillors see let 18,226 electric utilities users; the workers, returned veterans, and all those low income families and their dependents be charged 30c per month over a period of 10 to 15 years and today at this late date and time, awake to the surprising fact that the present 10c per month extra for their services?

Another set of our conservative City Councillors were very much afraid that this $300,000 would go to the utility users of this city, might possibly be the entering wedge which would eventually lose to us our entire utilities.

But Fellow Electors: these same city councillors sat in solemn conclave on September 1, 1945, and without a dissenting vote, authorized the expenditure of $1,770,000, to expand an electric power plant that is now capable of producing all the power this city consumes, and on top of this is still able to supply the Calgary Power Co., with some $600,000 of electric energy, for less than it costs the city to produce.

Yours for sane consistent administration.

Bretton Woods

Editor Bulletin: We are again witnessing an all out attempt on the part of entrenched finance to permanently enslave the people. This power sought to enslave the people in Christ's day when the decree went forth that "All the world should be taxed." —A tax which compelled the greatest member of the human race to be born in a stable. This power was denounced by Lincoln as a greater enemy than the armies which opposed him. Its evil influence was the beginning of the attempt to compel Britain to "beg" a loan from the United States—a loan which will "Beg"-gar her indeed. Under Social Credit, Britain would not need to borrow a single cent because her government would, in the words of Abraham Lincoln exercise "the privilege of creating and issuing money and credit, the supreme prerogative of government; but it is the government's greatest responsibility to exercise it."

If all governments exercised the right of financial control, there would be no need to surrender any of our sovereignty to the super Government of Finance and democratic governments would be able to govern in accordance with the wishes and will of the people; and not contrary to it, by plunging them deeper and deeper into debt. "This Money will cease to be Master, and become the servant of humanity. Democracy will rise superior to the Money Power." (Abraham Lincoln).

Governor-General Holds Last Levee

OTTAWA, Jan. 2.—(CP)—The Earl of Athlone yesterday held his last New Year's levee as governor-general and, beginning promptly at noon, more than 1,000 members of the defence forces and civilians of all walks of life filed past, shaking hands and exchanging the season's greetings

The governor-general, in military uniform and flanked by his aides, stood in the main corridor of the parliament buildings and, as the clock in the tower struck 12, Prime Minister Mackenzie King, members of the cabinet and diplomatic representatives filed past, followed by hundreds of defence force personnel who had assembled in the house of commons chamber. Then came civilians who assembled in the government lobby.

The levee is an old custom which originated in French Canada when, on New Year's Day, the governor used to stand in front of the governor's house in Quebec and shake hands with all who wished to meet him. It is one of Ottawa's most democratic functions and any man who wishes may join the line. The only women in the line were members of the armed forces.

In the afternoon, Prime Minister Mackenzie King held a reception in Laurier House. Since Mr. King first became prime minister he has held New Year's receptions each year except during the war. In reviving the custom, it was estimated that more than 1,000 greeted him.

New Brunswick Ends Beer Ration

FREDERICTON, Jan. 1.—(CP)—Effective Monday beer was unrationed in stores of New Brunswick Liquor Control Board, it was announced by W. C. Lawson, chairman of the board. Until today it was necessary to surrender one coupon for one dozen large bottles of beer every two weeks, or one half dozen every week. Lifting of the restriction will be of a temporary nature, Mr. Lawson said, but if there is not too much of a run on the present supply it will continue.

Chinese Change Rules of Road

SHANGHAI, Jan. 2.—(AP)—China's traffic ran yesterday for the first time on the right hand side of the road—an innovation brought about by the fact that the bulk of motor vehicles now are American made with left-hand steering gears. The change over was made without serious accident after a month's schooling.

258 Names in List

Canadian Sailors Honored For Pacific War Service

OTTAWA, Jan. 2—(CP)—Sailors who fought in the Pacific theatre with units of the Canadian Navy were recognized for the first time in the King's New Year's Honors List released Monday.

CANADIANS PREVIOUSLY had won decorations for gallantry in the Pacific, but never were they cited in honors lists for action with Canadian units.

The list contained 258 names and highlights included awards for bravery in the Halifax naval magazine explosion last July and recognition of the work of the "Dems"—the long unsung heroes who manned merchant ship guns.

THE "DEMS"—taken from the designation, defensively equipped merchant ships—handled the scant armament of the merchant marine and aided in bringing convoys safely through waters infested by U-boats and paralled by enemy aircraft.

The Navy's honors list was a war clean-up and it touched on every phase of the service from the galley to the admiral's walk. It contained posthumous awards for men who gave their life to save shipmates, long-last recognition for old engagements where details of bravery had just come to light. There were decorations for nursing sisters and Wrens and for a cook's morale boosting.

CITATIONS WERE AVAILABLE for 155 operational awards, but not for 103 non-operational awards.

Highest decoration—Companions of the Order of the Bath (CB)—went to Rear Admiral Victor Brodeur, CBE, of Vancouver and Ottawa, chief of the Pacific Command, and Rear Admiral George L. Stephens, CBE, of Ottawa and Plympton, England, who rose from First Great War low deck rating to chief engineer of the navy in the Second Great War.

Among those made Commanders of the Order of the British Empire (CBE) was Commodore Harry De-Wolf of Ottawa and Halifax, assistant chief of the naval staff, who already holds the Distinguished Service Order, the Distinguished Service Cross, Bars and Mention in Dispatches. He therefore is one of the most decorated Canadian serviceman of this war. As commander of the destroyer Haida he made daring pre-invasion raids along the coast of France.

OTHER CBE HONORS WENT to Commodore G. M. Hibbard of St. Malachie, Que., commander of the Halifax naval dockyard, who accepted surrender of a U-boat off the Nova Scotia coast following German capitulation; Commodore Harold T. W. Grant, DSO, captain of the Pacific Canadian Fleet flagship Ontario, and Capt. Walter B. Creery of Vancouver, commander of the anti-aircraft cruiser Prince Robert, just returned from the Pacific.

The following were among those made Officers of the Order of the British Empire (OBE):

CHAPLAIN OF THE FLEET G. B. Foote of New Glasgow, N.S.; Cmdr. H. E. W. (Bill) Sirois of Toronto, director of naval information; Roman Catholic Chaplain C. H. Moreau of East Kildonan, Man., whose citation told of his risky work aboard speeding motor torpedo boats in the English Channel and described him as "a fighting, seagoing Padre";

Lt. W. J. Carson of Regina, naval fire chief at Halifax whose citation said he had a complete disregard for his own safety and was instrumental in limiting the extent of the magazine explosion conflagration. A dozen of Carson's men also won honors.

Coast "Polar Bears" Take New Year Dip

VANCOUVER, Jan. 2.—(CP)—On New Year's Day some people prefer to nurse the results of New Year's Eve celebrations with an ice pack, but 43-year-old Pete Pantages and his Polar Bear Club believe a plunge in Vancouver's seashore is a tonic.

A new record was set when 42 members took the plunge with more than 3,000 watching. The weather was ideal with temperatures at about 46 above and a water reading of 40 to 45 degrees. Ten of the participants were women, and all the swimmers stayed in for about 10 minutes.

OLDEST MEMBER taking part was 60-year-old A. H. Jackson, a veteran of the First Great War. However, the accent was on youth with boys ranging in age from six to 14, also a little girl of six years took the plunge.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—(AP)—With the temperature 18 degrees, Richard Zirkle, 38, went for his annual New Year's Day swim in Lake Michigan yesterday and drowned. His friend, Nicholas du Boyse, 53, told police investigators they entered the icy water together, as had been their custom on New Year's Day for several years, but Zirkle disappeared.

Dangerous Drive Delivers Serum To Halt Epidemic

LONDON, Jan. 1—(CP)—A perilous night drive over dangerous mountain roads by Miss Pamela Rolston of Vancouver and Maurice Frink of Elkhart, Ind., officers of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, resulted in the safe delivery of sufficient serum to check a sudden diptheria epidemic among 3,000 Polish displaced persons in an UNRRA camp in the French occupation zone of Germany, UNRRA officials said today.

After 10 diphtheria cases were diagnosed in the UNRRA assembly centre 12 miles from the French border, a message was sent to the UNRRA office at Baden Baden in the French zone.

Miss Rolston and Mr. Frink volunteered to deliver enough serum to treat the cases and immunize the rest of the camp including 500 children. Treatment of the entire centre was completed within 30 minutes of their arrival.

Basic Industries In B.C. Expected Set New Records

VICTORIA, Jan. 1—(CP)—British Columbia government estimates released today of the 1945 production of the province's four basic industries showed two records were set.

Fisheries set a record in attaining an estimated production of $40,000,000, a gain of about $5,000,000 over 1944 actual production. Estimated production of agriculture was $100,000,000, another new mark and about $2,000,000 above the previous record set last year.

Estimated production of the other two basic industries with 1944 production in brackets were: Forests $150,000,000 ($146,000,000); mining $54,600,000 ($54,900,000).

Total estimated production was $344,600,000, an increase of nearly $10,000,000 over 1944.

The Bulletin's SPORT SHOW by Hal Dean

SPORTS EDITOR

RILEY MULLEN'S judgment as to hockey timber is beginning to pay off handsomely in the case of Bing Merluk. Having a little trouble in regaining his ice-legs early in the season after close to a three-year stretch in the Navy, Merluk appears to be developing fast.

Right now he and Bobby Carse threaten to become the most dangerous duo around the net in the league—not even excepting Red Hunter and Dunc Grant.

MERLUK, A COAL BRANCH

hockey product, after being well up in the scoring for the Edmonton Junior League during the 1941-42 season, was leading when he left the Canadians to join the Navy during mid-season of 1942-43. Bing received his discharge just after the Arena opened this season and returned to Edmonton following a tryout with Clarence Moher's New Westminster Royals.

Queried as to Bing's progress shortly after he started working out for a place with the Flyers, Riley ventured, "I like Merluk's style—I think he'll come alright." It seems that Calgary is now Bing's special meat, for out of Flyers' goals scored against Stampeders in their last two games, Merluk has accounted for four and helped in a fifth.

ONLY FOUR POINTS separate the three top teams as the western senior circuit enters the New Year and Ken Stewart has lost his whiskers. Capitals stirred into action either a battery of Regina barbers, or some of Ken's many razors, by their 6-4 verdict over Saskatoon Elks last night, and the Edmonton Flyers turned over the Stampeder chuckwagon as a very appropriate New Year's gesture toward the Foothills City folk.

Red Hunter and Bobby Carse kept pace in the struggle for scoring honors with a pair of points each, and Dunc Grant, third member of the leading trio had his ration reduced to a singleton by Ken McAuley. Jack McDonald, Flyer right-winger, was on the sidelines as a result of a leg injury sustained when he crashed a goal-post in practice.

WALT HAMILTON, Calgary's new defence recruit, made his initial Arena appearance last night and he'll do alright. Although out of circulation while paying an official New Year visit to Timer Stan Morgan during the early part of the game, Hamilton alternated with Art Michaluk and Johnny McIntyre.

On one thrust by Carse and Merluk in the second period while Bunny Dame was off for boarding Gordie Watt, the puck bounced up over the prostrate Dertell, hit the crossbar and then dropped just in front of the goal line. And maybe there wasn't a scramble for that little rubberized disc then—Dertell's good right hand got there first.

All four Independent League clubs are back into their schedule at the Arena this evening, and city juniors resume on Thursday night with EAC's and South Side supplying the excitement. Canadians versus Maple Leafs will be the feature bill over the Stampeder chuckwagon as a very appropriate New Year's gesture toward the Foothills City folk.

Flyers play in Calgary tonight, and to finish off a busy week go against Regina Capitals on Friday and then journey to Saskatoon for a date with the Elks Saturday night.

Chicago Smacks Toronto 3-1 To Move Into Tie for Lead

CHICAGO, Jan. 2—(AP)—The Chicago Black Hawks swept into a tie for first place in the National Hockey League Tuesday night as they scored two goals in the first period and then easily protected their lead to defeat the Toronto Maple Leafs 3-1 before a record of 17,576 in Chicago Stadium.

It was the second time this season the Black Hawks, who finished fifth last year, have been in a tie with the Montreal Canadiens for first place. They mutted a chance to take over undisputed possession of first place Sunday when they dropped a 3-2 decision to the New York Rangers.

The Black Hawks started their victory spurt in the first period, coasted through the second and allowed Toronto one goal, and then came back in the last period to clinch the victory with another tally.

BIBEAULT RETURNS TO SCORE SHUTOUT

BOSTON, Jan. 2—(AP)—With goalie Paul Bibeault turning in his second shutout of the season after sitting out the last three games, Boston Bruins defeated Detroit Red Wings 4-0 to gain sole possession of the National Hockey League's third rung last night before a packed 13,909 crowd at the Boston Garden. It was the Bruins' first regular season victory over the Red Wings since Dec. 28, 1943.

Although outplaying the Red Wings by an impressive margin, it took the Bruins almost 40 minutes to gain their first counter, made by defenseman Jack Crawford, who rifled in a 50-footer after taking Bill Cowley's passoul.

Early in the game, Milt Schmidt and Jack Stewart drew major penalties for putting on a furious flailing-fisted exhibition in front of Detroit net and while they served their five-minute sentences Bobby Bauer notched the second Boston goal and Murray Henderson a third one.

Before the Bruins opened 1946 in such spectacular fashion, the top balcony faithfuls, known as the "gallery gods," presented Reardon and Herbie Cain with wrist watches as expressions of their esteem.

Podoloff Denies Rumor Puck War Is Imminent

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 2—(AP)—President Maurice Podoloff of the American Hockey League, amplifying a previous declaration, Monday described as "utterly without foundation" a recent statement "that a hockey war is imminent between the National and the American Leagues."

Said Mr. Podoloff: "The statement that emanated from Cleveland attributed to Mr. Al Sutphin, president of the Cleveland Barons, was completely innocent in purpose.

"ONE OF THE Cleveland sports writers, impressed by goalie Kiszenak's work for Cleveland, telephoned Mr. Sutphin to inquire whether the player could be drafted in midseason by the National Hockey League. Mr. Sutphin replied that in no event could the player be drafted before the annual meeting of the league in June, and even then, in view of the fact that there was no affiliation between both leagues, there could be no draft.

"The fact that no affiliation agreement has not been signed is nothing new. The press contained reports of this statement September 1944. At the meeting of the committees of both leagues various modifications of the agreement of the previous year were suggested and accepted.

"HOWEVER, WHEN it came to the question of non-operating clubs, the National League took the position, which was correct in theory, that a franchise in a non-operating territory should be vacated.

The American Hockey League, however, was bound by the fact that it had given Springfield, New Haven, Philadelphia and Washington the right to suspend for the duration, and that right could not be rescinded until the war was legally as well as practically over.

"Relations between the two leagues have never been more harmonious. There is every appearance that an agreement will be concluded before the annual meetings of both leagues."

Big Night

The goaling of Ken McAuley (above) and Bing Merluk's sniping featured Edmonton Flyers' 3-2 New Year victory over Calgary Stampeders. McAuley was particularly brilliant in the third period.

McAuley, Bing Merluk Main Show

By HAL DEAN

Driving through for three goals in the second period to overcome a deficit of two, Edmonton Flyers downed Calgary Stampeders 3-2 in the Western Canada Hockey League's New Year fixture at the Arena here. As a result of the win Edmonton now sits only two points away from second-place Saskatoon Elks.

The paid attendance of 5,441 a new high for the season—and for the league as well—also is a modern record for the Arena, just barely topping the number which saw Saskatoon play here Dec. 1

Bing Merluk, utility forward who has been operating chiefly with the Flyers' second line, whipped home the 4-star honors for the night. Merluk, a former Canadian Junior, was in all three Flyer goals, scoring a pair and assisting in the other.

IT WAS McAULEY'S finest performance of the season. The rubber sifted through the pads for the first Calgary counter, which was scored by Dunc Grant, but he had a hand in Merluk's whirlwind finish. Thereafter Ken had the gate shut tight and was sensational in the numerous times Stampeders stormed in for an equalizer.

Injured in the mouth by a flying puck with six minutes remaining in the second period, McAuley returned to the game after repairs, following a 10-minute interval.

OUTSHOT by 29 to 29 during the entire game, Stampeders held an 11 to 7 edge during the third period and at least four of the saves which McAuley blocked in the last eight minutes, were really tagged for goals.

Although Calgary wound up the first session with a 2-0 margin, Edmonton held a big edge on the play after the opening five minutes. Ally Lloyd Russ Dertell handled 22 shots in that chapter, eight of them between the pipes in the first minutes while Flyers had the Slamys completely on the defensive. During that same time, Calgary failed to get a single shot on the Edmonton net although they had 10 during the period.

PLAY OPENED UP fast and before the game was 2 minutes old, with the game then in progress only three minutes, McAuley had blocked five and Dertell three drives. The next whistle didn't come until after the clock had registered "5".

Only two penalties were imposed during the period, the first to Hamilton for tripping Lane on the Flyer defenceman swung over the Calgary blue line, and the other to Jack Hamilton on an elbowing charge—for interference with Desmarais.

WITH THE MAN-POWER advantage, Stampeders immediately applied the old pressure and taking a pass from Hunter, Grant drove the puck between McAuley's pads—but was the first shot on the Edmonton net for a space of over seven minutes.

Forty seconds later at 12:40, and with the Flyers still shorthanded, Hunter was camped just a few feet out for Bob Brownridge's pass from the wing, and it was just like potting a sitting bird for "Red."

Near the end of the canto, Bert Laprade broke through and the puck bit Dertell's pad and the goal post before careening into the corner. With seconds left Merluk's backhander on a play with Carse almost clicked.

SECOND PERIOD started out tamely, but warmed up with the second change of lines, Carse coming out with Laprade and Merluk.

The Flyers' first goal was the prettiest of the night. Bobby Carse got possession just outside the Calgary blue line and worked his way in, finally whipping a perfect pass across from the boards to Merluk, who rifled the disc into the net.

TWENTY-THREE seconds later —7:08 to be exact—Carse brought the fans to their feet with the tying goal, following a three-way attack with Merluk and Laprade. Don Stanley's hurried shot on a pass from Kennedy immediately following the faceoff.

Flyers were unable to capitalize on Dame's penalty just before McAuley was injured.

MERLUK'S SECOND and the payoff goal came at 18:54 off a pass from Stanley. Dertell had a piece of the puck on his pad but in it went.

With McAuley doing some saucer blocking, Flyer defence held in the final period. There were just five minutes to go when Lane tripped Hunter a few feet from one of the officials, as the Calgary speedster was skating in—and without the puck at that.

It was probably fortunate the Stampeder advantage was soon off-set, Doug Speech being chased for tripping Stanley.

LINEUPS

First Win in 18 Starts

Caps End Unbeaten Streak By Downing Saskatoon 6-4

REGINA, Jan. 2—(CP)—Coach Kenny Stewart's Regina Capitals gained their first victory in 18 starts when they defeated Saskatoon Elks 6-4 Tuesday in a Western Canada Senior Hockey League fixture.

The game, result of which left Stewart jubilantly preparing to shave off the beard which he had vowed to grow until Caps won a contest, started slowly, but soon after Red Williams of Saskatoon went off for holding, Les Berrett went in to score unassisted on Raiph Almas and put Caps one up.

Ron Gardner had the fans in an uproar when he took a pass from Jack O'Reilly shortly afterwards for Caps' second goal. The Regina defencemen were checking closely and Bunny Dame, who scored their first goal of the game at 8:45 when Cy Rouse, on an assist from Gordon Buttrey and Pat Lundy, slipped the puck past Jim Houston.

Ken Stewart

Caps pressed hard as Harvey Barnes and Jim Brennan went off for high sticking Benny Hayes and Gordon Pettinger gave Almas a close call, and in the second period Al Swain scooped up the puck to beat Almas unassisted at 8:56.

PAT LUNDY, assisted by Rouse, knifed one past Houston from the right boards. Barrett and Ken Ullyot went off for roughing and Jim Brennan, with Red Williams getting the assist, beat Houston after a pileup in front of the Regina cage.

Barnes secured a lucky goal for Regina in the third period when he lobbed a soft shot past Almas, who had one eye on Pettinger when he moved out to stop the shot and overstepped the puck. Lundy countered for Elks.

Hayes went in first in the early moments of the game to score on Almas and Gardner clouted home for Caps with a brilliant goal at 14:58 of the third, with Jack Lambrecht getting the assist.

LINEUPS

Saskatoon: Almas, Williams, Shoquist, Ullyot, Brennan, Miller. Subs: Welch, Allen, Buttrey, Lundy, Rouse, Hulme.

Regina: Houston, Barnes, Lambrecht, Swaine, R. Gardner, Barrett. Subs: Hayes, Pettinger, Taylor, O'Reilly, Gardner.

Officials: Stan Fuller, Gus Morrison, Regina.

SUMMARY

First period: 1, Regina, Barrett 8:40; 2, Regina, Gardner (O'Reilly) 8:27; 3, Saskatoon, Rouse (Buttrey, Lundy) 8:34. Penalties: Williams, Barrett, Barnes, Brennan.

Second period: 4, Regina, Swaine 8:56; 5, Saskatoon, Lundy (Rouse) 13:01; 6, Saskatoon, Brennan (Williams) 19:06. Penalties: Miller, Barret, Ullyot.

Third period: 7, Regina, Barnes 5:22; 8, Saskatoon, Lundy (Buttrey, Hulme) 8:33; 9, Regina, Hayes (Taylor) 10:41; 10, Regina, Gardner (Lambrecht) 19:39. Penalties: Shoquist, Barnes (2), Lundy, Brennan.

Vancouver Wins Evergreen Bowl

VANCOUVER, Jan. 2—(CP)—Vancouver College won Canada's first bowl game by overwhelming the St. Paul Crusaders of Winnipeg 30-0 in the "Evergreen Bowl" senior high school football clash here Tuesday. A crowd of 5,000 watched the game.

Bob Murphy was the hero of the college team as he completed four passes for three touchdowns and piled up plenty of yardage in his bucks through the Crusader line.

The Vancouver team got away to a flying start when Murphy intercepted a Winnipeg pass about midway through the first quarter. He passed 20 yards to Freddie French to get the ball to the eight-yard line and then flopped another to French for the score. The attempted convert was blocked.

Alabama Easily Triumphs Over Southern Cal. 34-14

NEW YORK, Jan. 2—(CP)—Alabama rolled to an easy 34-14 victory Tuesday in the 31st Rose Bowl football classic at Pasadena, Calif., while at San Francisco eastern and western college all-stars played to a 7-7 tie.

At New Orleans the cowboys of Oklahoma A and M vanquished the Gaels of St. Mary's in the 12th annual Sugar Bowl game 33-13 while at Miami the University of Miami snatched victory in the last second of the Orange Bowl game from Holy Cross, 13-6.

A total of 397,000 persons turned out for the 13 bowl games played in the United States, more than 80,000 saw eight bowl contests one year ago.

The Orange Bowl provided the most electrifying finish. Substitute Al Hudson, former high school athlete, snagged a forward pass by Holy Cross' Eugene De Filippo and streaked 89 yards for the touchdown that broke a 6-6 tie. Harry Ghaui kicked the extra point.

Had the ball not been in motion, the game would have ended as Hudson was midway down the field.

At Houston, Tex., the University of Georgia downed Tulsa's Hurricanes 20-6 in the second annual Oil Bowl before 27,000 spectators.

Texas vanquished Missouri 40-27 at Dallas in the Cotton Bowl, a wide-open affair.

Drake eked out a 13-12 victory over Fresno State in the Raisin Bowl game at Fresno, Calif., while at El Paso, Tex., New Mexico University defeated Denver University 34-24 in the Sun Bowl game.

93,000 AT ROSE BOWL TILT

PASADENA, Jan. 2—(AP)—Clouted stars from Alabama passed, pounded and dazzled Southern California's hulking Trojans to a 34-14 defeat Tuesday while 93,000 fans thrilled to one of the greatest Rose Bowl games in many years.

Scoring the first time they laid hands on the ball, the maroon-jerseied swiftsters from the old south outplayed and out-manoeuvred their western rivals throughout most of the game.

Coach Frank Thomas' boys, undefeated in their regular season, snatched a touchdown six minutes after the opening kickoff.

Two more touchdowns were posted in the second period as the baffled Trojans grabbed at the elusive Alabama backs, led by sophomore sensation Harry Gilmer of Birmingham. The Trojans simply couldn't stop the Alabamans who rolled up 19 first downs to none in the first half. The count then was 26-0.

They came back for a third period march to chalk up their fourth touchdown, making the score 27-0.

When the Crimson Tide rolled to their fifth score early in the fourth period, spectators began moving for the exits. The 21st renewal of the annual Rose Bowl game had become a one-sided it had reached the stage of boredom—26-0.

The Trojans saved themselves from complete humiliation, however, as the minutes ticked off in the closing quarter. Twice in quick succession they crossed the Alabama goal.

One was a touchdown pass caught over the goal. The other came from a blocked punt, and a short run.

EAST-WEST GAME ENDS 7-7

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2—(AP)—A 42-yard pass by the third quarter by Allen Dekdebrun of Cornell pulled the East All-Stars from behind to a 7-7 tie with West in the annual Shriner's benefit football game played yesterday. A capacity crowd of 60,000 attended.

The eastern stars, sparked by Dekdebrun and Penn's Bob Evans, hammered hard to break the tie in the final quarter. They were stopped by a west goal line defence on the three-yard line.

Tom Hughes, Purdue tackle, was called in at this point to attempt a place kick for the east from the 16-yard line. It failed by inches.

OKLAHOMA TOO STRONG

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 2—(AP)—The cowboys of Oklahoma A and M were too big and strong for the Gaels of St. Mary's and won the 12th annual Sugar Bowl game 33-13 Tuesday after one of the most spectacular displays of widespan football seen here.

All-American halfback Bob Fenimore of A and M and Herman Wedemeyer of St. Mary's starred in the duel, especially from a big line that opened many holes in the St. Mary's defence and made running plays by St. Mary's virtually impossible.

INTERCEPTED PASS PAYS OFF

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 2—(AP)—The Cinderella University of Miami football team, with a fairy godmother story, 13-6, over Holy Cross in the Orange Bowl Tuesday with an electrifying 89-yard run on an intercepted pass in the first second of the game.

Substitute Al Hudson, former high school athlete, reached high to snag a forward pass by Holy Cross' Eugene De Filippo and was off like a bolt of lightning toward the goal line. Amazed, the record throng of 36,000 scarcely knew what was happening until Hudson raced across to score.

Until that moment, it seemed that the score would end in a 6-6 tie.

Both sides had fought grimly, doggedly, with each looking for an opening.

Then the fairy godmother waved her hand. Especially, at least, did Hudson was off like a gazelle. The magic touch was that the ball fell into the hands of the fleetest man on the Miami team.

Harry Ghaul put the final accent on the climax, one of the most sensational in gridiron history, by kicking the extra point.

TRIPPY STARS FOR GEORGIA

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 2—(AP)—The University of Georgia Bulldogs, led by the great Charley Trippi who passed for one touchdown and returned a punt 99 yards for another, defeated Tulsa's Hurricanes 20-6 Tuesday in the second annual Oil Bowl football game. Georgia led 7-6 going into the fourth period, but Trippi put on the show.

A crowd of 27,000 watched the Bulldogs win.

DEEP SNOW FOR SNOW BOWL

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 2—(AP)—In snow a foot deep and with the pigskin said to be unseen on several times during play, St. Paul's first annual gridiron classic—the Snow Bowl—ended in a scoreless tie yesterday. The temperature stood near zero.

Several thousand spectators who stood in drifts three feet deep at the Highland Stadium cheered the game between the Golden Gliers, sponsored by a flying circus promoter, and the Purple Vitamins, backed by a department store. Players were high school gridders assembled from the neighborhood.

Red Ink and heavy paper cardboard were used for the team markings.

"Bobby Carse Night"

Fallen Junior Puck Players To be Remembered Jan. 10

Memories of yesteryear will be in the minds of the hockey fans when the Edmonton Junior Hockey League pays tribute to former local junior puckchasers, some of whom paid the supreme penalty in the costly war, at the Arena on Jan. 10 in what is being billed as "Bobby Carse Night."

Many of those juniors which the fans cheered, eventually marched off to war—and 17 of them never returned.

MANAGERS OF THE four clubs now operating in the city circuit have checked very closely and each has made a list of those who gave their lives for their country.

Former juniors who are so very proudly remembered are: Ken Collins, Dennis Young, Stan Garside, Charlie Sherman, Harold (Happy) Douglas, "Scotty" Snedden, Bill Gostick, of the Maple Leafs; Harold and Kenneth Sutton, Bob West, Jack (Zeke) Heffernan, Jack Talbot, of South Side; Mel Lunde, for whom a memorial trophy has been named by Vancouver hockey officials, Mike Patrick, of Edmonton Athletic Club; Tom Foster, Mark Maveety, Jack Willans, of Canadians. A former secretary-treasurer of the Maple Leaf Athletic Club, Charlie Field, also will be especially remembered.

The club managers have endeavored to make the list complete, but if any name has been inadvertently omitted, the junior league asks to be advised at once.

The night will also be a tribute to those former puck-chasers who were taken prisoner of war. Some 82 POW's will be guests of the junior loop and will be seated together in section "L".

The regular junior league fixture will see Edmonton Athletic Club and Maple Leafs opposing each other. During one of the intermissions, EAC officials will make a presentation to Bobby Carse, who came up through the ranks of the EAC. Bobby was a prisoner of war in a German camp and is currently starring with the Edmonton Flyers.

$300,000 Added To U.S Racing Purses For 3-Year Olds

NEW YORK, Jan. 2—(AP)—All race horses automatically aged one year at midnight Dec. 31, and the thoroughbreds that were three years old at 12:01 a.m. found out that their birthday presents will be chances at the richest pot of gold ever.

LAST FRIDAY, Kentucky Derby officials said the Derby would carry a $100,000-added purse next spring. Monday it was learned the Belmont Stakes would be boosted to the same $100,000 size for 1946, putting the second "hundred grand" jewel in American racing's triple crown for next year.

From Pimlico came word that the third gem—the Preakness—which still stands at $50,000 added, may make it unanimous when the Maryland jockey club members meet Jan. 16.

WITH THE SANTA ANITA Derby also in the $100,000 league, three-year-olds thus have at least three "100-G" pots to run for next year, as racing apparently begins to spread some of its fantastic 1942 "take" around. More than $1,250,000,000 was bet throughout the United States last year.

In boosting the Belmont to $100,000 status for its 77th running next spring—probably the first Saturday in June—Belmont officials also shovelled a bigger bundle into the package for the two-year-olds by lifting the historic Futurity to $50,000 added.

Record Crowd Sees St. Paul Beaten

ST. PAUL, Jan. 2—(AP)—St. Paul, playing before the largest crowd ever to see a league game in the auditorium here, bowed before Minneapolis Millers 3-2 last night in an overtime United States Hockey League contest.

The announced attendance of 7,343 beated the previous mark of 7,317 set April 4, 1941, during a St. Paul-Omaha playoff tilt.

Moose Jaw Trims Notre Dame 9-3

MOOSE JAW, Jan. 2—(CP)—Moose Jaw Canucks started the New Year just as they finished the old—in the winning groove.

The 1944-45 western junior hockey champions trounced Notre Dame Hounds 9-3 Tuesday afternoon for their 11th consecutive victory without a loss in the Southern Saskatchewan league.

Frank Ashworth and Dick Butler each with three, Bert Olmstead two and Metro Prystai tallied for the winners and Hank Dornstauder, Leo Mulhall and Bert Elliott for the Collegians. Emile Francis, Moose Jaw goalie, was awarded an assist in one of his team's goals.

English Motor Racing Track Sold

WEYBRIDGE, Surrey, Eng., Jan. 2—(Reuters)—Brooklands motor racing track at this town southwest of London, where millions of spectators have watched the world's finest drivers in action, has probably staged its last event.

A formal offer of £330,000 ($1,485,000) by Vickers-Armstrong Limited for the land and buildings, including the track, has been accepted by the owners.

The principal families of plants are distributed worldwide.

Jessop Top Jockey With 290 Winners

HALLANDALE, Fla., Jan. 2—(AP)—Job Dean Jessop failed to match Jack Westropes 1933 modern United States riding record of 301 victories in a season, but the Nibley, Utah, lad led all rivals for 1945 with a total of 290 triumphs.

Jessop had five mounts Monday and won with one.

Stanley Lipler, former exercise boy and stableman from Toronto who began training a few years ago and has had marked success with the horses owned by Mrs. Lottie Worlf of Detfoit, more than doubled his 1944 count by saddling 127 winners to top the country's trainers for the season. Last year he sent 62 of his charges into the winners' circle. Like Jessop, the 30-year-old trainer had one score Monday.

Over Olds, Camrose

Red Deer, Wetaskiwin Win In Central Hockey Contests

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

RED DEER, Jan. 2—Red Deer Ramblers gained two points by troucing Olds Elks 10-4 here on New Year's afternoon in a Central Alberta Hockey League game. The contest marked the first appearance here of the Olds team since they were admitted to the league to replace the Lacombe entry which withdrew.

Red Deer was ahead of the visitors 3-2 in the first period and had a 5-3 margin by the time the third lap opened. Several regulars were missing from the locals line-up and while eight of the winners' goals were scored as the result of passing, their all-around play did not rate with previous appearances this winter.

There was no score until nine minutes had been played in the first canto and then Red Deer tallied on a two-man rush. Olds retaliated in a goal about a minute later. Four minutes after Ramblers notched another with Elks banging in the equalizer right behind it. Swainson scored through to give Red Deer the lead just before the period ended.

The second period saw Ramblers score the visitors 2-1. Swainson and Wight, of Red Deer's second line figured in both goals. McLeod tied from Haldane for Olds.

A somewhat fairly dull period was enlivened by a couple of fights about midway through for which two of the offenders, were penalized five minutes.

The best hockey of the game was shown in the first half of the final period. Red Deer snapped into action 20 seconds after the face-off when Swainson drove in Wight's pass and in little over nine minutes of fast play Ramblers had banged in three more good goals. Olds rallied briefly to score at 16 minutes and in the final minute of the fray, Silverman shot in Dillon's pass to wind it up.

LINEUPS

Olds: B. Hanson, J. Hodgeson, Schroeder, Haldane, Anderson, McLeod, W. Hanson, H. Hodgeson, Clarke, Barkhouse, McCormick, Kilpatrick, Sonderegger, Knechtl.

Red Deer: Setters, Silverman, Martin, Wight, Swainson, Grove, Dillon, Holmes, Goodacre, Gibson.

Referee: Hube Gooder, Olds. Judge of play: Paul Brown, Red Deer.

SUMMARY

First period: 1, Red Deer, Goodacre (Dillon) 9:08; 2, Olds, Anderson (Haldane) 10:39; 3, Red Deer, Holmes (Goodacre) 14:35; 4, Olds, Schroeder, 15:16; 5, Red Deer, Swainson 18:00. Penalty: Gibson.

Second period: 6, Red Deer, Swainson (Wight) 3:14; 7, Olds, McLeod (Haldane) 14:27; 8, Red Deer, Wight (Swainson) 19:02. Penalties: Wight (five mins.), Anderson (five mins.), McCormick.

Third period: 9, Red Deer, Swainson (Wight) 30:16; Red Deer, Grove 8:06, 11, Red Deer, Grove (Silverman) 9:33; 12, Red Deer, Wight (Swainson) 9:42; 13, Olds, Haldane (Anderson) 16:31; 14, Red Deer, Silverman (Dillon) 19:37. Penalty: Hanson.

COLONELS REMAIN UNBEATEN AT HOME

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

WETASKIWIN, Jan. 2—Wetaskiwin Colonels remained undefeated on their home ice Tuesday by turning away the Camrose Maroons 5-2 here New Year's Day. The crowd was even bigger than the one which watched the Wetaskiwin-Stettler game.

Barchyn was one of the most outstanding players on the ice. On one occasion he started behind his own net and went through the whole Maroon team to score one of the nicest goals seen here for a long time. J. Richardson and I Jones were the bad boys of the game one getting nine minutes and the other eight in the cooler.

The Maroons could not score when the Colonels were short handed, which was quite often even, despite using the players they had from Edmonto which were Delaney, Voytecheck, P. Elock, Petasky.

The officials did a good job of handing out penalties before the game got out of hand. J. Richardson received five minute misconduct penalty for talking back to the referee.

LINEUPS

Camrose: Delany, J. Richardson, B. Richardson, Orrin, Trautman, Elock, Voytechuk, Burrows, Madison, Steen, Petasky.

Wetaskiwin: Baker, Lesiek, Brault, Sinata, Barchyn, Brown, I. Jones, Gostick, W. Jones, Kirstein.

SUMMARY

First period: 1, Wetaskiwin, Brown (Shantz) 19:35. Penalties: Burrows, J. Richardson (2), Brault.

Second period: 2, Wetaskiwin, W. Jones (Lesiek) 2:15; 3, Wetaskiwin, Gostick (Barchyn) 16:30. Penalties: Brown, I. Jones (4), Elock, Kirstein, Voytechuk, J. Richardson (2), 1 misconduct.

Third period: 4, Wetaskiwin, Barchyn, 7:16; 5, Wetaskiwin, I. Jones (W. Jones) 8:26; 6, Camrose (Madison) 14:26; 7, Camrose, Burrows 15:37. Penalities: Petasky, Kirstein.

Three Clubs Tied In North League English Soccer

LONDON, Jan. 2—(Reuters)—Chesterfield clung to a slim lead in the league north—but on goal average only—as a result of football matches played in the United Kingdom yesterday.

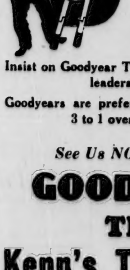

WHILE CHESTERFIELD was idle Tuesday, both Everton and Sheffield United, its nearest rivals, won their games to draw level on points but slightly behind on goal average. Everton trimmed Bury 3-1 while Sheffield United took the measure of Burnley 8-1.

At the other end of the table, Blackburn's 3-1 victory over Barnsley lifted the Rovers off the bottom rung where they had been since Mid-November. Leeds, whose game with Blackpool was postponed, now occupies that position.

DESPITE COLD weather and frosthound grounds, 50,000 persons turned out in Newcastle to see the home team defeat Sheffield Wednesday 2-0.

In Scotland, the annual holiday game between Glasgow Rangers and Glasgow Celtic gave the former a 1-0 victory. The Rangers now have an 11-point lead over Aberdeen in Scottish division "A". Aberdeen was surprisingly defeated 3-1 by Falkirk.

The turnstone is one of the greatest wanderers of all shore birds.

Speaker Declares

Poor Farm Homes in Rich Country: Something Wrong

LLOYDMINSTER—There is something wrong, when Western Canada, rich in agriculture and farm produce, has poor homes and poor buildings on her farmlands, according to I. J. Nollett, Saskatchewan MLA for the Lloydminster constituency.

MR. NOLLETT WAS addressing a complimentary banquet given in his honor by the executive of the Lloydminster Board of Trade. He leaves the border city shortly for Regina after a residence here of several months duration. He gave up his farming interests in the Freemont district last summer.

Mr. Nollett told the gathering that it was his intention at Regina to "see that we do not have a repetition of the depression years prior to the war. We must have adequate returns for farmers' produce to maintain social services of health, recreation and religion on the standard required. All our well-laid plans for the re-establishment of our returned men and women will fail if we cannot maintain a reasonable price level."

PRESENT AT THE banquet were Dr. G. L. Cooke, mayor, the town councillors, representatives of the public and high school boards, the Canadian Legion and the Board of trade and their wives. O. C. Yates, trade board president, occupied the chair.

Dr. Cooke, in proposing a toast to Mr. Nollett, asserted that the guest of honor in his short term of office had proved he was a member who had the interests of his constituency at heart. Mr. Yates reviewed the association of the Board of Trade with Mr. Nollett, and A. R. Brown proposed a toast to the armed forces. Other speakers included Eric Sturge, president of the Lloydminster branch of the Canadian Legion.

During the evening, Miss Marie Monaghan, accompanied by her sister, Eileen, entertained with vocal solos.

Magera Addresses Andrew Calf Club

ANDREW—The Andrew Calf club meeting here recently was addressed by Fred Magera, district agriculturalist, and T. Millera, supervisor of calf clubs in Alberta. It was decided that another meeting will shortly be held for the purpose of electing four delegates to attend a convention at Edmonton early next year.

Family United For Holiday Season

NESTOR TKACHUK

WALTER TKACHUK

SYLVESTER TKACHUK

Willingdon Brothers All on Leave

WILLINGDON — Mrs. Ell Tkachuk has just enjoyed her happiest Christmas and jolliest New Year in four years. With her were her three sons, Nester, RCAF, Walter, RCAF and Sylvester of the Canadian Army.

NESTOR WAS discharged during the summer and is now teaching at Luzan, six miles from here. Walter is stationed at Mountain View with the air force, and is preparing to establish himself in a "hobby shop" when he is discharged. A handy man in handicrafts, he designed and built a wooden rocking horse with electric eyes which light up when rocked, for the Christmas tree of his small daughter, Myrna.

Sylvester was one of the first men to enlist from here in 1939. After more than four years in Africa and Italy, he arrived home last week from England.

HARDISTY—Bernard Hendricks, in Europe for the 1944 festive season, was home with his mother, Mrs. Charles Hendricks, he recently returned from overseas. LAW Verda Miller of Vancouver spent the week at her home here.

VETERAN—LAC E. Francis and Mrs. Francis, Calgary, spent the week at the C. Kennedy home. Pte. Naomi Vetters, Calgary, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Vetters in the Stella district.

LACOMBE—Tears of joy appeared on the face of Mrs. D. Daniels and her husband when they met their son Luther, who arrived in Tees last week after four years service overseas with the RCA in Sicily, Italy and Northwest Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Daniels have good reason to be proud of their family. Four children served in the armed forces, one of whom, Alfred, is still in England. A younger son recently was discharged while a daughter is still with the RCAF (WD) in Montreal.

CAMROSE—Local and district men aboard the recently-docked Queen Elizabeth are: Gnr. W. A. Bowal, Gnr. R. D. Bredesen, Gnr. G. Foss, Cpl. E. L. Batke, Sgnn. G. A. Bruce.

48-Year Resident Dies at Andrew

ANDREW—John Peseznuk, resident of the Andrew district for the last 48 years, died at his home recently. He was 88 years old. He leaves two sons, Bill and Tom, and five daughters, Magdeline Shoreiko, Nellie Jones, Nancy Golowasky, Louise Danyluk and Lena Morris.

KEEP A YOUTHFUL APPEARANCE

It is not possible to live forever in "the springtime of life," with a correspondingly youthful appearance, but it may often be possible to live in such a way that good health is enjoyed far longer than is generally the case. And good health, in turn, is a great help in aiding the individual to look younger than he is.

One of the first indications of aging is the appearance of wrinkles may be prevented to some extent through the cultivation of proper habits of living and the right care of the skin. With advance in years the blood does not seem to be as nourishing to the skin tissues as in youth, nor does it remove the waste material formed by the skin as rapidly as formerly, and toxic deposits under the skin may accumulate.

Wrinkles are really the creases formed by the skin folding regularly in such a way as to shut off the local blood supply.

It is sometimes possible to improve the appearance of the skin and to overcome wrinkles to an extent almost remarkable. The tissues underlying the skin are composed principally of muscles and by exercising the muscles of the face properly, the circulation of the skin may be restored in large measure.

Another method of improving the local circulation is to use hot applications morning and evening, following these by an ice rub, or by washing the face with cold water when the ice is not available or when the skin is too tender and delicate to admit of ice being used.

After the exercise a good plan is to rub the wrinkles length-wise with a clean tooth brush which has been dipped in some bland oil, such as sweet almond oil. Rubbing the bottom of the wrinkle tends to increase the amount of blood circulation through that part. Of course, the rubbing must not be severe enough to tear the skin.

The combined treatments will often be effective in stimulating the circulation to the skin and in preserving a more youthful appearance.

It is also advisable to improve the gen ral health in every way possible. The use of a well-balanced diet, combined with suitable exercise, will be found an effective health-builder.

All questions regarding health and diet will be answered. Large stamped, self-addressed envelope must be enclosed. Write on one side of paper only. Letters must not exceed 150 words. Address McCoy Health Service, The McCoy Building, 1151 West 6th Street, Los Angles, Calif.

Men Who Planned Canada's Pacific War Effort Honored

My JACK BRAYLEY

OTTAWA, Jan. 2—(CP)—Awards to men who planned Canada's Pacific war effort and men who saw action in the Far East highlighted the King's New Year's Honors List, which included a peerage for the governor-general designate and made two hard-working cabinet members of the Imperial Privy council.

A WAR CLEAN-UP for members of the armed forces and kindred services, the list contained 1,214 names with the only civilians being Cabinet ministers, members of the merchant navy and the auxiliary services.

Most honors went to the RCAF—488 names. The army had 440, the navy 258 and the merchant navy 26. Citations were available only with the operational list of the navy, which also announced its traditional New Year's promotions—235 in all.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King, noting that the wartime policy of omitting civilians from the list is continued today, announced a civilian list would be issued later. This was interpreted as meaning the Canadians who rendered distinguished services during the war in civilian capacities would be honored in a corresponding degree to members of the armed forces.

THIS WOULD SEE the bestowals of Orders which do not carry titles, in conformity to established Canadian practice. Mr. King also has said that the government's intention in respect to a Canadian medal and the establishment of a distinctive Canadian Order will be announced in due course.

The two members of Mr. King's cabinet who hereafter will be entitled to the use of "Right Honorable" before their names are Finance Minister Ilsley and Justice Minister St. Laurent, both made members of the Imperial Privy Council.

Field Marshal Sir Harold Alexander, who will soon succeed the Earl of Athlone as governor-general of Canada, becomes a Viscount. The same title goes to Field Marshal Sir Bernard Montgomery, who had Canadian divisions under his command in both the Mediterranean and Northwest European theatres.

Men in all services who played a part in the Dominion's Pacific war plans were given recognition.

THEY INCLUDED: Air Vice Marshal Roy Slemon, CBE, of Winnipeg, chief of the Pacific Air Force, which he had started organizing on the east coast when Japan capitulated, made a Companion of the Order of the Bath (CB).

Commodore Harold T. W. Grant, DSO, of Ottawa, who commanded the cruiser Ontario, flagship of the Pacific Canadian fleet, made a Commander of the Order of the British Empire.

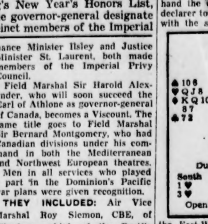

CBE's also went to army Pacific force organizers and veteran campaigners such as Brigs. J. P. E. Bernatchez, DSO, OBE, of Montmagny, Que., W. A. Bean of Kitchener, Ont., and A. J. Creighton of Vancouver.

Every good player counts his winning tricks or his losers before playing to the first trick. In today's hand the opening lead allows the declarer to get rid of one loser, but with the spade distribution 4-2 in the East-West hands, it looks as though South must lose two spade tricks as well as two heart tricks. However, you can play the hand several ways and lose only three tricks.

Even if it is played in what appears to be the wrong way, you lead a small heart from dummy. South wins the king with the ace, cashes the ace and king of spades and leads the third spade. If West trumps and returns a trump, you still lose only two trumps and a spade. If West discards the deuce of clubs, East will win the trick, return a club which declarer wins with the ace, and now the fourth spade is led. There is nothing West can do about it except to cash his queen and jack of trumps.

The ROAD AHEAD

by Capt. HARPER PROWSE, M.L.A.

NO THINKING person can afford to disregard the waves of strikes which is sweeping not only Canada and the United States, but practically the entire world today. Nor can they fail to observe that these strikes are occurring at a time when the number of servicemen being discharged into civilian life to look for work is increasing daily. Nor can they fail to view this unhappy co-incidence without misgivings.

MANAGEMENT HAS TWO hopes—one, that if strikers become unruly or too demonstrative, that the armed forces will be called in to maintain law and order, and second, that job-hunting servicemen will be willing to accept jobs as strike-breakers. Organized labor has two fears—they are exactly the same as management's two hopes. The servicemen, discharged from the forces are looking for work are on the spot.

There is, actually, little chance of the first of these two possibilities happening—unless the strikers continue and become so bitter that it becomes necessary to curb the strikers' actions in the national interest. The calling out of the army in aid of civil power is a tricky business and no government would consider doing it unless it became absolutely necessary, and even then would only do it with great misgivings.

LABOR AND MANAGEMENT both know what the strikes are all about. They both know what they want. These strikes are basically the result of the conflict which was bound to arise when two strong

All roads are reported in good condition; some slippery spots on the main highways but nothing to bother careful drivers; weather outlook clear.

Fan Is Ousted For Rowdyism At Hockey Game

City police were right on the job to prevent rowdyism during the New Year's spine-tingling hockey contest between Edmonton Flyers and Calgary Stampeders at the Edmonton Arena, as one overly-zealous fan found to his chagrin.

IT WAS LATE in the third period of the hectic encounter, when the fan heaved a festive orange on the ice.

Fans in that section of the rink, possessing a fine sense of sportsmanship, clamored for the man's removal and in less time than it takes to say "Ken McAuley" the surprised fan found himself tapped on the shoulder by Const. J. Ratcliffe, who jerked his thumb significantly toward the cold spaces without.

THE FAN IS SAID to have demurred, whereupon the officer clearly indicated he wasn't foolin' by producing a shiny pair of steel bracelets.

Mr. Fan went out but quick.

He was not permitted to return for the remainder of the game.

Chief Const. Reg. Jennings, a redhot hockey fan in his own right, said Wednesday:

"WE ARE DETERMINED there will be no repetition of the bottle-throwing that marred the recent game here between the Junior Canadians and Saskatoon Navy teams. Although an orange is hardly an offensive weapon we are going to make it clear that tossing things on the ice is a serious menace."

Chief Jennings said he did not think that further action would be taken against the orange tosser.

CITY COUNCIL HAD aired the problem of bottle-tossing fans at a recent meeting and ordered prompt police action against fans guilty of such offences.

Three Are Injured In Traffic Mishaps

Three people received minor injuries in traffic accidents in the city over the New Year's holiday according to city police reports. None were detained in hospital.

Samuel Ankers, 10204 118 avenue, suffered a bruised left leg when he was knocked down by a truck driven by Leon Riopel of Waugh, Alberta. The accident occurred at 6 p.m. New Year's Eve while Riopel was driving south on 97 street near 118 avenue.

James and Phyllis Rawlins, 11402 71 street, passengers in a truck operated by Victor Blocklinger of Edmonton, suffered slight bruises and shock when the truck was hit from behind by a truck operated by Lloyd Davis, 11607 68 street Monday evening. Blocklinger told police that his truck started to steam while he was driving south on 66 street. He parked the truck at 124 avenue. He stated that there were no lights on the truck at the time of the accident.

Merriment Prevails

Thousands In City Welcome New Year

Mixing the ever closely linked companions—sadness and joy—bells and whistles blended into a traditional background in Edmonton Tuesday at the last second of 11:59 p.m., when it seemed the whole of the city's downtown section vibrated under the wave energies of thousands of voices as they swelled into a crescendo of welcome for the newborn infant year—1946!

ADDING MANY DECIBELS to the volume of outdoor celebration was the not too melodious but well intended cascade of sound issuing from hundreds of motor car horns, aided now and then by hoarse toots from the compressed air whistles of the city's street cars.

There was a deep and penetrating commentary behind the burst dykes of emotion which flooded the central part of the city with shouts of joy and gay noises from the thousands of celebrants welcoming 1946.

Many of the participants were young men who had spent last New Year's in a soggy slit trench or in a reverse rainstorm of flack far up in the sky over enemy territory.

TO SOME, LAST NEW YEAR'S was spent in desperate conflict, with not the cup of wassail in their grip but rather a commando knife which was struggling for life and death supremacy, poised for the fatal thrust into an adversary's jugular vein.

For Edmonton as well as for every city or hamlet in Canada it was the first peacetime welcome of a new year since 1939, the following September of which saw the world convulsed in the paroxysm of pain and misery never before equalled in the history of warring mankind.

For the length of time it takes to render Auld Lang Syne—either musically or unmusically—a group of about 20 revellers held up traffic at a busy point on Jasper avenue, until they had completed the ancient and honored song-fest.

AT THE ZERO HOUR the streets were crowded with merrymakers, who dropped the conventional veneer of formality. Groups and individuals drifting in opposite directions joined hands and exchanged wishes for a happy new year even though they were strangers and

A former carrier for The Edmonton Bulletin, of which his father is mechanical superintendent, he attended Westmount, McCauley, McDougall and Victoria high schools. On enlistment he received training at Winnipeg, HMCS Cornwallis, and Saskatoon. After reporting back at Halifax, he expect to be posted in Ireland.

The Inquiring Reporter

THE QUESTION

What do you think of the manner in which Edmonton welcomed the New Year?

THE ANSWERS

PHIL WATSON, traveller: I think it was immense. I have seen the New Year welcomed in quite a few places, but never in a more spontaneous, jubilant manner than here.

FRANK HALKIRK, accountant: I think that there has seldom been a celebration here to equal that of Monday night. And with it all I think that there was a minimum of damage and of accidents.

HARVEY WILLIAMS, clerk: I wandered around quite a bit during New Year's Eve and I feel that it was one of the most hilarious observances I have ever seen here, and yet, as it turned out, one that was remarkably restrained insofar as damage and sorrow was concerned.

Alberta Airmen En Route Home

Among the 400 airmen aboard the troopship Scythia due to dock at Halifax on Jan. 5, is a small group of RCAF personnel destined for Edmonton and northern Alberta points. The group will probably leave Lachine on Jan. 7. Included in the passenger list are the following names:

WO2 E. J. Ash, Viking; Lt. E. R. Baxter, 11434 83 street; WO2 E. Deputat, Ispas; WO1 J. C. Harvie, Lynnville; LAC R. Hogg, 11920 78 street; Sgt. A. Hungar, 9743 97 street; F-Sgt. G. I. Jamieson, Edmonton; WO2 H. F. Lahl, Waskatenau; WO2 W. Larson, Tellaw; FL. L. B. Long, 10840 81 avenue; LAC. C. S. Lukasiewich, Egremont; Sgt. J. A. McIntosh, Sylvan Lake.

FO. S. G. Petron, 10838 98 street; FO. H. Ritchie, 9205 99 street; Sgt. D. A. Shaw, Hines Creek; WO2 G. T. Trentham, Three Hills; Sgt. F. D. Ward, 11836 93 street; Sgt. L. R. Webb, Vermilion.

Several Thefts New Year's Eve

Two cars, four pairs of silk stockings and several overcoats and hats were stolen in the city New Year's Eve, according to city police reports.

The cars, property of James S. Johnston, 11229 99 avenue, and Floyd Sharpie, 10020 153 street were both recovered Tuesday. Sharpie's car, found by the city police was found to have suffered considerable damage. Johnston's car was located at 122 street and 109 avenue by R. W. Honuby, 10823 123 street. It was not damaged.

Miss Kay Tymo, 9624 103 avenue, informed police that four pairs of silk stockings were taken from her room Monday night or early Tuesday morning.

Reports of lost of stolen overcoats, hats and rubbers were continuing to pour into city police Wednesday morning. The majority were reported to have been taken from city cafes and establishments holding special New Year's Eve functions.

Tax Prepayment Interest Allowed

Interest at the rate of four per cent per annum will be allowed on all 1946 prepayments of taxes prepaid on or before Jan. 15, it was announced Wednesday by Thomas Walker, city assessor.

The interest will be calculated from Jan. 15 to the date which is fixed later by city council for payment of instalment of taxes. Payment should be made on the basis of the 1945 tax levy.

The amount of the payment on which interest allowance will be credited on the 1946 tax roll, and after the taxes have been levied a statement will be issued showing any balance which may remain due, or surplus to be refunded.

Interest at the rate of four per cent per annum will be allowed also on any partial payments of taxes made on or before Jan. 15, and such payments will be applied equally over the various instalments.

Exhibition Meet

A meeting of the directors of the Edmonton Exhibition Association will be held Friday at 8 p.m. at the arena. Election of officers, and the striking of standing committees for 1946 will be the principal business at the meeting.

Power Production

Production for city requirements at Edmonton's power plant from Jan. 1 to Dec. 23, 1945, totalled 114,796,000 kilowatt hours compared with 111,564,700 for the same period last year, an increase of 3,231,300 kilowatt hours, according to a statement filed Wednesday with the city commissioners by W. I. McFarland, power superintendent.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Spoiled Moody Husband Has Non-Talking Spells

Although a Good Father, Man Acts Childishly, Will Not Speak to Wife for Months After She Goes Out or Entertains

DEAR MISS DIX: My father is a good man. He doesn't drink, is faithful to mother, and provides for the family as well as he can, but he gets moody spells when he won't talk to mother sometimes for months at a time. When she asks him what the trouble is, all she gets is a grunt as his reply. However, she goes on with her housework, helps him like a hired clerk in their business, and waits patiently until he gets ready to talk to her and treat her like a human being again.

We children have noticed that these spells usually come on after mother has gone to one of her clubs, or even to church, or if she has had company while he was working. This has been going on for some 20 years. What do you think of a man like that? What is your solution to the problem?

DAUGHTER.

ANSWER: I think your father is a heel and your mother a weakling, and one of them is just about as much to blame for the situation as the other. Your father is one of the men who never gets to be adult. If he lived to be a thousand, he would still have the mentality of a boy, and he would still use the tactics of a spoiled boy in getting his own way and making his family kowtow to him by making himself so disagreeable that they would rather give in to his moods than fight it out with him.

ALL THAT YOUR father needs is to be dealt with on the kid basis, and if your mother had had the nerve, metaphorically speaking, to turn him across her knees and give him a good spanking whenever he began to gloom, it would have had the same effect upon him that it does upon a bad child. All of us have seen youngsters who went into tantrums turned into beaming pacifiers in a minute by a little judicious use of the slipper.

Your mother needn't have stood 20 years of a husband passing into the silence whenever he didn't get his own way about a thing. All she would have had to do would be to pack up her bag and leave a note behind her saying that she would not return until he got over his grouch and would be on speaking terms again; that she had gone to find more agreeable companionship. It isn't too late to try the remedy yet.

DEAR MISS DIX: I am a boy of 17. Ten years ago my father and mother were killed in an accident and I was left an orphan. I was left very little money so I cannot have the clothes or do the things that better-off boys do, and for that reason I have left school. Lately I have come in contact with a couple who like me and seem to sense my predicament and they are willing to let me live with them.

I am desperately in need of someone who will guide me for at least a few years. Do you advise me to go to live with these kind people, or to stay where I am until I reach an age when I can get married? I cannot go into the service because of my bad physical condition. People think the family I live with is mine, but they are not. They are very ignorant and all they care for is my board.

POINCIANA.

ANSWER: I would certainly advise you to at least try out these new friends, but don't turn over what little money you have to them until you get better acquainted with them. Can you talk over your situation with your guardian? It seems to me that any man would be filled with compassion for a boy such as you are, and would be glad to try to help him find himself.

WHY DON'T YOU try joining the Boy Scouts? Or are you too old for that? What you need is companionship and amusement, and I would certainly advise you to join the Young Men's Christian Association and to live at their place if you can possibly afford it.

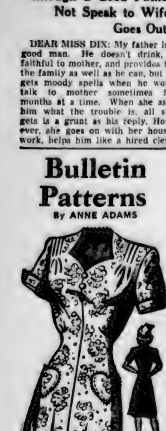

You speak of getting married as if that would solve all your troubles, but the worst possible thing you could do would be to marry before you get on your own feet and have some definite way of supporting a family. A boy husband with a wife, who has probably married him for a meal ticket, and who is loaded down with the care and responsibility of a family is the most pitiful sight on earth. Don't add to your unhappy boyhood an unhappy marriage.

Debunker

When is a fish not a fish? When is a fish a sardine? Many people spend their lives catching and canning sardines, yet there is no such fish. The word refers, not to any fish, but to a process of preparing them for market. This process was originated on the Island of Sardinia in the Mediterranean, about the end of the 14th century. The method was soon copied by others, and by 1800 was known to most epicures. The first American sardine packing was done at Eastport, Me., in 1876 and has been extended to California since 1889. Small herrings, pilchards and mackerels are the fish usually canned and sold as "sardines"—so named for the process of packing them in olive oil on the Island of Sardinia.

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN—

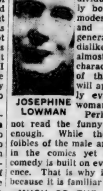

Why Grow Old?

You housewives, who spend much of your time stirring up good food, as Actress Jane Harker is doing above, probably realize how handy it is to have a man around. But do you consciously attempt to overlook his annoying characteristics.

"ALL HUSBANDS ARE ALIKE," but they have different faces so you can tell them apart."—Anonymous.

For heaven's sake, why didn't someone tell women that a long time ago? Why don't mothers tell daughters and why don't women themselves remember it in order to save wear and tear? Of course, we could turn it around and say the same thing about women because although individuals vary greatly both sexes have modes of thought and conduct, and general likes and dislikes, which are almost universally characteristic. A few of these, at least, will apply to virtually every man and woman.

JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Perhaps women do not read the funny papers often enough. While the faults and foibles of the male are exaggerated in the comics yet much of the comedy is built on everyday experience. That is why it is so funny; because it is familiar and true.

MUCH OF THE EMOTIONAL turmoil which harries married couples, and many of the hurt feelings and misunderstandings, could be sidestepped if a wise wife would recognize the difference between men and women and would look at the entire thing from a humorous objective viewpoint. I'll bet every day lots of women go about feeling huffy or in tears because of things which are really not important and which would be screamingly funny if put in the funnies.

It is a rare man who will be careful about rings on the furniture, who will pick his clothes up or who can take a shower without deluging the bathroom. He is still rarer if he like to "talk it out" immediately after a misunderstanding, if he meets the hecticness of little children with calmness, if he comes home in gay humor when things have gone badly at the office, or if he can get up in the night without falling over something!

MEN ARE WONDERFUL people to have about! They are interesting and impractical, sentimental and lovable, and we could not get along without them! It seems to me that it would be worth every wife's while to forget the small, annoying characteristic masculine traits and to spend time and energy, wisdom, imagination and love, on the important things in building the happiest and most romantic marriage possible! You will never grow old that way and life will always be painted in strong colors.

If you wish to have my leaflet "Keeping Romance Alive" No. 63, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with this request to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

"What sort of nonsense have the other employees been telling you about me, Miss Jackson?"

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Where is the family whose members never disagreed or quarreled and who always loved each the same every second of every day?

THERE ARE moments in the life of any child when, for the sake of his own self-esteem, he has to get the better of someone. A parent is seldom in a position to understand when that moment arises and so, to her, the quarreling and the teasing seem senseless.

WHEN AN OLDER child habitually teases a younger one, two factors may be active. The older child may be jealous of the affection squandered on the younger one and so tried to make life disagreeable to him; the younger one may aggravate the older just to get attention from him. For teasing is attention even of an annoying kind.

Mrs. C. P. C. thinks her 15-year-old is unkind to his 5-year-old brother. "He keeps him in tears and makes life unbearable to him most of the time," she writes. "I have been unable to find any reason for this. What do you suggest?"

CHIEFLY that you try to stay out of the fracas and let the younger one shift for himself. You are a poor person to judge the rightness or wrongness of the older boy's acts for you, naturally, incline to favor the younger, weaker child.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP of the younger and criticism of the older, only makes the older boy feel like a villain and more inclined than ever to try to get the best of "Mother's Pet."

The older boy should spend time with his own companions and so should the younger one. Their tasks in the home should be different and may be switched weekly so that neither feels he is being put upon by the other.

MAKE AN EFFORT to praise the older, telling him how much you love him and need his help in showing the younger one how to get along with others. This shifts some of the burden of his brother's development to him and makes him more amiable toward him. He will not be friendly so long as all he gets is blame and what the younger one gets is pity for the teasing he suffers.

Our Leaflet No. 60, "Selfishness and Jealousy," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with this request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Minute Make-Ups

There's a Mid-Victorian look about the new "lacey" hats draped with dotted veiling. There's a fragile look to the skin when it is viewed through the softness of veiling. But you've got to use an extra minute to make up, to pat on powder, to brush color on your cheeks and to stroke "shine" into your lashes!

Say Hitler's Body Found by Russians

PARIS, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The newspaper France-Soir, in a report unconfirmed elsewhere, said yesterday the body of Adolf Hitler was discovered by the Russians Dec. 19 and identified by a dentist. The paper's Berlin dispatch said the body was found buried in an armored shelter in a garden a short distance from the chancellery where Hitler and Eva Braun are believed to have died.

Who's Who in Edmon-Teens

Miss Marguerite Yvonne Kinney, 17, daughter of Flt. Sgt. and Mrs. W. T. Kinney, 10011 105 street, who is a member of South Side and Central Edmon-Teens clubs. She is in Grade XII at Victoria High school and hopes to study interior decorating. She is fond of riding, is a member of the Edmonton Saddle Club, and owns her own horse; likes skiing, collects Artie Shaw and Woodie Herman records. She is a member of First Presbyterian church, Girls Hi-Y and Victoria High Swim club.

Elizabeth Woodward Says . . .

SO YOU'VE RESOLVED A FEW RESOLUTIONS

This time of year, when it's young and new and just beginning, you decide you ought to make a resolution or two. From now on in you're going to . . . And no matter what, you simply won't. You call down on your courage, your self-control and your stick-to-it-ivity to rescue you . . . and keep you toeing that line.

Well, go ahead and resolve to do or not to do whatever you think will do you the most good. If it's chocolate fudge splendors every afternoon after school . . . change your diet. Give up wrangling with your brother . . . whining at your mother . . . getting out of homework . . . or developing a sore thumb just at music lesson time. Take yourself by the scruff of the neck and reform you.

THE NEW YEAR with its clean page is occasion enough for wanting to do yourself over. But here's a resolution for you. Why not resolve to give everybody a break? It's a two-way proposition. It will be good for you . . . and good everybody.

There's that new girl who just moved into your neighborhood. She looks all right from a distance. But you're so wrapped up in your own affairs that you just haven't bothered to give her a tumble. You don't know her, you say . . . so why bother about her? Well, that's okay . . . don't bother about her. But she'd love you if you would. She doesn't know anybody . . . she'd love to get started . . . she's so lonely as all get out. Why not resolve to give all strange people . . . and lonely people . . . and people you don't know very well but should . . . a break. You'll be doing yourself a favor . . . in making friends for yourself. And you'll give them a lift.

AND WHEN the gang gathers to roast the absent members, why not give them a break? The absent ones. Refuse out loud to believe the rumors. Fight back when someone starts criticizing. Put the quietus on gossip. The poor girls who get torn limb from limb need a champion. It may as well be you.

Giving everybody a break will have the strangest effect on you. You'll find yourself thinking about their fun and happiness before your own. You'll find yourself going way out of your way to be thoughtful. You'll find yourself planning chuckles and hearty laughs instead of sitting back while others tickle you. You'll find that giving a break requires some action on your part.

But they say that practice makes perfect. And action is good for your muscles. So if you'd put some steam behind this resolve . . . you'd soon get good at it.

Miss Tennant Pledges Vows

The home of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Waddell 11817 107 street, was the scene of a wedding New Year's Eve at 7 p.m., when Miss Gladys Myrtle Tennant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Tennant of Edgerton, became the bride of Ross Cowan Waddell. The ceremony was performed before the Christmas tree with white wedding bells hung from the ceiling. The Rev. W. T. Young of Norwood United church officiated.

Given in marriage by her mother, the bride wore a white satin gown with net over-skirt. The neckline was fashioned on sweetheart lines and the long sleeves tapered to lily points over the wrists. Her finger-tip veil was caught to her head with orange blossoms and her corsage was red and white roses. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom.

MISS MARGARET McBride of Edgerton, bridesmaid, wore a pink bengaline gown with matching finger-tip veil caught to her head with pink blossoms. Her corsage was pink and white baby chrysanthemums.

Little Eva Irene Waddell, flower girl, wore white georgette trimmed with pink ribbons at the shoulder. She wore pink ribbons in her hair and her corsage was pink baby chrysanthemums.

Frank Wilkins was best man.

After the ceremony a reception was held for 24 guests. Mother of the bride, receiving, wore a green crepe frock with a corsage of white baby chrysanthemums. Mother of the bridegroom chose a pink brocaded frock with corsage of pink and white baby chrysanthemums.

THE BRIDE'S table was set with a white linen cloth and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake. Red roses completed the floral decorations. Alfred Holmes proposed the bridal toast.

The couple left by motor for a short honeymoon and upon their return will reside in Edmonton.

Get Splendid Cough Syrup By Mixing It at Home

Quick Relief. Big Saving. So Easy! No Cooking.

To get quick relief from coughs due to colds, you should really try mixing own cough syrup at home. It's no trouble at all, and you know it's pure and good. It needs no cooking, and it's so easy to make that anyone can do it.

From your druggist get 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a 16 oz. bottle, and add enough plain syrup to fill up the 16 oz. bottle. To make syrup, stir two cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed.

Use corn syrup or liquid honey, if desired. The 16 ounces thus made should last a family a long time, and gives you about four times as much for your money. It never spoils, and children love its taste.

And for quick results, you'll say it's really fine. It seems to take hold instantly, loosening the phlegm, soothing the irritated membranes, and helping to clear the air passages.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for quick action on throat and bronchial irritations. Just try it, and if not pleased your money will be refunded.

Dances, Receptions, Frolics Attract Many at New Year's

New Year's Eve has come and gone, and Edmonton joined with the rest of Canada on Monday night to launch on the new year with party and song.

New Year's Day more than 1,000 persons attended the annual New Year's levee at the legislative buildings, held by His Honor J. C. Bowen, lieutenant-governor of Alberta. Premier Ernest Manning received with the lieutenant-governor. Major C. V. Dacre was aide de camp and honorary aides were Major Francis Neale, Capt. Alan Gillies and Capt. Alex Richards.

IN THE OFFICERS' MESS at the Prince of Wales Armory active and reserve army officers and former officers now discharged welcomed in the New Year. Col. Louis Scott, OBE, DCM, ED, acting district officer commanding, represented headquarters MD 13. The area commandant, Lt.-Col. R. Walter Hale, MC, ED, and Mrs. Hale, assisted by senior officers, welcomed the guests. Among those attending were: Brig. J. C. Jefferson, CBE, DSO, ED; Col. J. W. Proctor, OBE; Lt.-Col. W. W. Henderson, OBE, MM; Lt.-Col. F. A. Stewart-Dunn; Lt.-Col. G. M. Beaton, OBE; Lt.-Col. G. D. K. Kinnaird, ED; Lt.-Col. A. E. Ludler, ED; Lt.-Col. A. H. Elliott, ED; Lt.-Col. J. W. Dodds, MBE; Col. F. J. Jamieson, VD; Lt.-Col. H. C. L. Gillman, VD; Lt.-Col. H. E. Balfour; Lt.-Col. Louis Younger, OBE, DSO, MC.; Lt.-Col. P. L. Debney, MM, ED.

AT THE American Officers' club at the American Air Base decorations in a New Year motif were used for the formal dance. Breakfast was served from 2 to 3 a.m. in the traditional American custom and at midnight Father Time accompanied by a small child, entered, designating the passing of the old year and the heralding of the new. Capt. H. W. Edmisten was in charge of arrangements.

A full dress ball was held by members of "K" Division, RCMP, in the gymnasium of the barracks. Buffet supper was served. Committee in charge of arrangements included Inspector H. Maxted, S.-Sgt. D. Mighall, Sgt.-Maj. H. G. Lowes, Cpl. H. Simoneau, Constable P. Bourassa, the Misses Beryl Matheson and Thelma Purdy. "Mounties" wore their scarlet uniform.

THE EDMONTON Badminton club attracted 300 persons for the New Year's dance when a turkey supper was served at midnight. Committee in charge of arrangements included John Barbour, George Strange, Keith Elcombe, Walter Wilson and Paul Chahtrand.

Hundreds of circles decorated the Masonic Temple when the Ionic club held its New Year's Eve ball. Dinner was served at 10:30 p.m. Monday, and dancing continued from 12 until 4 a.m. Officers of the club were in charge of arrangements.

The Silver Glade Roller Bowl decorated with lighted evergreen trees was the scene of a New Year's Eve frolic and a floor show was arranged including fancy roller skating numbers by youthful members of the roller bowl, and dancing.

THE AMERICAN Red Cross Recreation Centre held "Cafe Society Up Town" copied on a smaller scale from the entertainment of the same name in New York and other large American cities. Dinner was served and the 350th U.S. Army band was in attendance.

More than 400 persons attended a New Year's Eve ball at the Elks' club. An entertainment and dancing was enjoyed with Kenneth L. Lawson in charge of arrangements.

More than 650 people attended the annual New Year's Eve ball in the main dining room of the Macdonald hotel.

MEMBERS of the RCAF at Northwest Air Command held an entertainment for officers, NCO's and airmen of the station on New Year's Eve and New Year's Day. The officers had a party, with buffet luncheon and dance in the officers' lounge on New Year's Eve, when wives and lady friends of the officers were present. Wing Commander Howard L. Watson was in charge of arrangements. There was also a dinner and entertainment for the NCO's and open house in the sergeants' mess on New Year's Day.

On New Year's Day, there was an officers at home in the officers' lounge held after the Lieutenant-Governor's levee to which local dignitaries, business men, and members of other services were invited.

The sergeants were also at home to the officers in their mess at 11:45 p.m. and officers and NCO's served dinner to the airmen in the airmen's mess at 1 p.m.

OFFICERS in charge of arrangements for the entertainment on New Year's Eve and New Year's Day were Sqdn.-Ldr. J. D. Truscott and Sqdn.-Ldr. M. S. Cook, members of the officers' mess committee.

Brig.-Gen. Dale V. Gaffney, commanding officer, Alaskan Division Air Transport Command USAAF, held open house at the officers' club, U.S. Air Base, Tuesday afternoon.

Several hogmanays and pro-hogmanay parties were held by the various Scottish clubs. Edmonton Scottish Society held its annual rally with a concert and dance in the IOOF Temple on New Year's Eve.

103 Women Are Honored

OTTAWA, Jan. 2—(CP)—Quiet work in offices behind the scenes and in hospitals by the women's and nursing services was recognized Monday night with the announcement of 103 awards in the King's New Year's honors list.

Of these, 51 went to members of the women's services and 52 to nurses.

HIGHEST DECORATION went to Lt.-Col. Isabel Cronyn, Toronto, deputy director of the Canadian Women's Army Corps, and Lt.-Col. Daisy I. Royal, Ottawa, formerly commanding officer of the CWAC Training Centre at Kitchener, Ont. Both were named officers of the Order of the British Empire (OBE).

Among other women honored, 12 were made members of the Order of the British Empire (MBE), 27 received the British Empire Medal, 14 the Royal Red Cross and 36 the Associate Royal Red Cross; two received commendations and seven mentions in dispatches.

THE TWO to receive commendations were both Wrens. Lt. Diana Spencer, Vancouver, and Acting Petty Officer Dorothy Hill, Meadow Lake, Sask.

Matron Olive O. Wilson, RCN, Newton, Ont., and Matron Marjorie E. Cowan, RCN, (2 Avalon Court) Regina, were awarded the Royal Red Cross. Maj. (Principal Matron) Edith M. Read, RCAMC, (837 Braemar street), Medicine Hat Alta., and Maj. (Principal Matron) Alice Tavener, Port Stanley, Ont., also received this decoration.

Edmonton Man Weds at Coast

VICTORIA, Jan. 2.—A candlelit ceremony performed Dec. 27, in the home of the bride's parents, united in marriage Miss Kathleen Mary Pike, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pike, 2080 Central Avenue, formerly of Edmonton, and D'Arcy Douglas Duncan, son of A. Fraser Duncan, KC, and Mrs. Duncan of Edmonton. Dr. Hugh A. McLeod officiated.

THE BRIDE was given in marriage by her father and wore a floor-length gown of white taffeta, featuring cutwork on the round neckline and on the tiny peplum. Her veil of white French tulle was edged with tiny pearls and held to the head with a gardenia on either side. The bride bouquet was composed of gardenias and deep red roses.

Mrs. Christine Charles was matron-of-honor, frocked in deep rose lace with a picture hat in the same shade. Her long gloves matched her bouquet of roses and chrysanthemums in shades of pink. Neil Duncan was best man.

THE YOUNG couple were assisted in receiving their guests by Mrs. Pike and Mrs. Duncan. Brig C. E. Connolly was toastmaster and toast to the bride was proposed by Dr. McLeod. Among the telegrams of congratulations received was one from the bride's brother, Lt.-Cmdr. Rodney Pike of Edmonton.

Leaving for a honeymoon in Vancouver, the bride wore a dressmaker suit of aqua blue with hat to match, muskrat coat and brown accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan will make their home in Edmonton.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Liquors lost four points and more while other stocks generally retreated lesser amounts in today's first post-New Year's market. Although the recently-strong spirits showed the widest break, the list as a whole was off fractions to more than two points.

LONDON STOCKS

LONDON, Jan. 2.—(Reuters)—South African gold mines attracted most interest today on the stock market which was firm during the opening session of the new year. Brisk inquiry for the gold shares from Cape Town attracted local buying and profit-taking at the higher levels was well-absorbed.

British funds again met steady investment support and the upward was general. Far Eastern bonds were around ½ higher although foreign issues generally were quiet. International dollar stocks were quiet and few changes were registered.

Industrials attracted only a little attention, apart from inquiry for store shares with Woolworths closing one shilling, three pence higher at 81 shillings, three pence. Breweries were disregarded and tobaccos lost some ground.

Rye Futures Up In Winnipeg Pit

WINNIPEG, Jan. 2.—(CP)—Rye futures prices declined sharply today on the Winnipeg grain exchange and at one time dropped five cents a bushel, the limit provided on any one day.

There was a minor recovery before the close which showed values 4⅛ to 4⅞ cents a bushel lower with July at $1.90⅞; May $1.79½-⅞, and October at $1.61.

Weakness at Chicago prompted the decline here with selling by locals and commission houses, and considerable offerings from American accounts. Some shipper and New York buying came in at bottom levels.

No export business in Canadian wheat was reported tdoay.

Lord Haw-Haw Will Be Hanged This Thursday

LONDON, Jan. 2. — (CP) — The career of William Joyce, mocked and reviled as the "Lord Haw Haw" of the German radio during the war, will end on the gallows Thursday.

JOYCE, SCAR-FACED, 40-year-old veteran of scuffles at British Fascist meetings before the war, fought to the end to save his life. When sentenced to death for high treason he carried his appeal to the House of Lords only to have it rejected. Home Secretary Eden yesterday decided against a reprieve.

The Brooklyn-born propagandist who sold his voice to Hitler is reported to have said to a relative when the Lords' decision was made known to him:

"I HAVE ALWAYS inclined toward a sombre view of the probable result but on the other hand I have naturally had hopes. Without hope one could not fight and not to hope and fight would be immoral."

Joyce's childhood years are obscure. He appealed the death sentence on the grounds that he is a United States citizen and hence had not committed treason against Britain. The Lords' ruling was that even an alien could be convicted of treason if he had enjoyed the protection of the King.

BRITONS LAUGHED at Joyce when his familiar and ridiculed accent came over the Berlin wavelength. They tuned into his broadcasts for fun and he was the butt of many music hall jests. But his talk was not all nonsense.

"Thank you for a new concrete runway," he might say, speaking of a hush-hush British airdrome. "The luftwaffe will find it very handy when they come."

SUCH THREATS were alarming when security was essential.

There came a day, however, when Joyce toned down his bragging. Into his broadcasts crept a note of despair and he adopted the theme that in victory, Britain would find herself wallowing in political disasters in Europe.

He never spoke of the disaster which would be his when Germany fell. Now it is upon him.

Several Thousand Jews Arrested For Questioning

Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

JERUSALEM, Jan. 2.—(BUP)—Police searching Jerusalem for Jewish terrorists today arrested several thousand Jews for investigation and questioning.

In the last six days police have arrested more than 10,000 Jews for questioning but the number held for further investigation did not exceed 100.

MORE THAN 5,000 were rounded up in today's raids.

Today's police operations centred along Jaffa and Prophet streets in the heart of Jerusalem.

Troops searched every house and yard and even poked into cisterns, seeking hidden arms stocks.

Thus far, it was learned, none of the members of the Irgun Zvai Leumi or Stern Gang which perpetrated last week's terrorism had been arrested. One wounded terrorist was held at Hadassah hospital and was not expected to survive.

NORMAL TRAFFIC was resumed around the wire-cordoned police station bombed last week. Carpenters were busy repairing damaged buildings along Jaffa road. Communications and electricity were restored to most points but a dusk-to-dawn curfew still was in effect.

POLICE COURT

Charged with contributing to juvenile delinquency, Archie P. Bottineau and Mrs. Ruth A. Aldrich were sentenced to six months' imprisonment at Fort Saskatchewan jail when they appeared before Magistrate A. I. Millar, KC, in city police court Wednesday morning.

Edmund P. Toupin was fined $25 and costs in city police court Wednesday morning on a charge of obstructing a police officer. Evidence was produced to show that Toupin had interfered while Constable J. K. McIntyre was questioning a suspect in a theft complaint.

Order Reveals
Hitler Ordered Slaughter Of Allies After Dieppe Raid

By ANN STRINGER
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

NUERNBERG, Jan. 2.—(BUP)—Adolf Hitler issued an order in October, 1942, that all Allied commandos be "slaughtered" to the last man upon capture, the War Crimes Tribunal was told today.

THE ORDER applied to all commandos, whether they were dropped on German-held territory in Europe and Africa by parachute, or whether they were landed by ship or airplane.

"From now on all enemies on so-called commando missions in Europe or Africa challenged by German troops, even if they are to all appearance uniformed soldiers, or demolition troops armed or unarmed in battle or in flight are to be slaughtered to the last man," the order read.

Hitler's order was issued a few weeks after the British and Canadian commando raid on Dieppe. It was dated shortly before the Anglo-American invasion of North Africa.

The order was aimed in part at wiping out Allied agents and saboteurs who were harassing the German rear areas.

"Even if when found they appear prepared to surrender no quarter is to be granted on that principle," the order said.

The German troops who captured Allied commandos either should do the executions themselves, or turn the prisoners over to the S.D., or security police, for execution, the order read.

Earlier the tribunal heard evidence that SS men, lazily puffing cigarettes, lined up hundreds of naked Ukrainian Jewish men, women and children in a giant open grave and slaughtered them with tommyguns.

THE PROSECUTION prepared to bring witnesses to testify against Kaltenbrunner, ailing Nazi security police head. This phase of the case is being handled by U.S. Navy Lieut. Whitney Harris, Los Angeles.

Witnesses summoned to testify against Kaltenbrunner included SS Maj. Gen. O. Ohlendorf, chief of security police at Heinrich Himmler's headquarters.

Others were SS officer Wislicheny, Alois Hiellriger, SS guard at Mathausen concentration camp, and a man named Schellenberg, head of the Nazi police headquarters intelligence branch.

AN EYEWITNESS, Hermann Freiderich Graebe, former manager of a Ukrainian construction company now living in the United States, described in an affidavit read in court how he witnessed the merciless mass execution at Dubno, in the Ukraine, during the Jewish pogrom of October, 1942.

He said 1,500 persons—some of them crippled old men, others babes in arms—were slaughtered daily while SS men cracked dog whips around them.

"The people got off trucks and undressed upon orders of an SS man," he said. "They had to put down their clothes in fixed places, sorted according to shoes, top clothing and underclothing.

"I saw a heap of shoes totalling about 800 to 1,000.

"Without screaming or weeping these people undressed and stood around in family groups. They kissed each other and said farewells. They waited for the SS man who stood near a pit 30 meters long and three meters deep (approximately 100 by 10 feet).

"During 15 minutes I heard no complaint or plea for mercy."

Graebe described the farewell of one family consisting of man and wife, each of whom appeared nearly 50, and their five children—an infant about one year old, two children eight and 10, and two grown daughters, 20 to 24.

"The old woman with snow white hair was holding the year old child in her arms and singing to it. She tickled it and the child cooed with delight," he said.

"THE FATHER was holding the hand of the boy about 10. He spoke to him softly while the boy was fighting back his tears. The father pointed to the sky and stroked the boy's hand, explaining something."

Graebe said the victims in the mass grave were wedged together, lying atop each other. He said the pit was two-thirds full when he saw it, and he estimated that it held 1,000 persons.

An SS man sat on the edge of the narrow end of the pit, smoking a cigarette and holding a tommygun on his knees, Graebe said.

"NAKED PEOPLE went down into the pit where the SS man directed them. Then I heard a series of shots—the next batch was already approaching."

Twenty defendants were in the box when the American prosecution resumed its case against the Gestapo after a 12-day recess. Ernst Kaltenbrunner, Nazi security police chief, was absent because of a cranial hemorrhage which has made him bed-fast. Grand Admiral Eric Raeder was present despite a painful glandular ailment.

Report Europe Jews Planning Mass Exodus

By JOHN B. McDERMOTT
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin

FRANKFURT, Jan. 2.—(BUP)—Lt.-Gen. Sir Frederick E. Morgan, UNRRA chief in Germany, said today that the Jews in Europe apparently had formulated an organized plan for a mass exodus from the continent to Palestine.

MORGAN SAID AT A press conference that he was unable to put a finger on the purported organization around which such a Jewish movement revolved. He said he believed that the organization was camouflaged clearly.

"The Jews seem to have an organized plan that can become a world force—a weak force numerically, but one which is generating power for getting what they want," the British officer said. "Their positive plan is to get out of Europe."

MORGAN SAID HE was becoming more and more convinced that reports of pogroms and atrocities against the Jews in Poland were based less and less on fact.

He charged that such stories were by-products of an organized Jewish plan to force the United Nations to take some action giving the Jews a permanent home.

Trainloads of Jews were arriving in Berlin Alshost daily from Poland, Morgan said. He added that the pockets of most of the Jews were well lined with money, and they were well fed and well clothed. Their stories of persecution of Jews in Poland, he said, were notable for their similarity.

MORGAN'S REPRESENTATIVES have been unable to find any concrete example of pogroms inside Poland, he said. The stories invariably were that the actrocities "occurred in the next town," Morgan said.

The purported clandestine "organization" of which Morgan spoke seems to be centred in Poland and Bavaria, he said. Some motivating force or promise, he said, is influencing the Jews to give up comfortable living in Poland, as evidenced by their physical condition, dress and money when they reach Berlin.

The problem of displaced persons throughout Germany is nearing a crisis, Morgan said. Its outcome is dependent on the United Nations, and especially American action in deciding the future of the UNRRA, he said.

HE PREDICTED THAT a "hard core" of 300,000 to 500,000 "unrepatriables" would remain at the end of 1946. UNRRA allocations are good only through this year, he said, and now is the time to make plans for caring for the displaced persons next year.

It is imperative, Morgan said, for the United Nations to sketch a long-range future policy, regardless of whether UNRRA or some other relief agency is doing the job.

"IF THE UNITED NATIONS fail to undertake to solve the displaced persons problem in some satisfactory manner," Morgan said, "we have the seeds of World War III now in our care and under the protection of the British, American and French armies."

Chinese Delay Opium Burning

PEIPING, Jan. 2. — (AP) — The public burning of some 29 tons of confiscated opium, valued at 1,865,000,000 Chinese dollars, was postponed yesterday. Its destruction had been scheduled as the highlight of the New Year's Day celebration. Gen. Li Tsung-jen, director of the Central government field headquarters here, said it had not yet been completely examined.

McMANNIS — In loving memory of Mervin F. McMannis who passed away January 2, 1943.
Deep in the heart lies a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest,
In Memory's frame we shall keep it
Because he was one of the best.
—Sadly missed by his loving mother, brother and daughter Jacqueline.

After 12-Hour Atlantic Hop

The story of a 12-hour crossing of the Atlantic was told Wednesday by two charming passengers who reached this city on a regular CNR train, Mrs. A. St. Arnault of Morinville and Mrs. D. B. Laughton, Vancouver.

BOTH HAD BEEN IN A GROUP of war brides who flew across the seas at an average speed of 226 miles an hour—and both reported that they had a delightful crossing, except they added, that their first landing had been made in Labrador where Mrs. Laughton said "There were icicles about 12 feet long hanging everywhere on buildings and vehicles.

Both were British war brides, although Mrs. St. Arnault was actually an Edmonton girl who had gone to England in pursuit of further training in her profession of nursing in 1938 and had been caught in the Old Country by the outbreak of war.

THERE SHE MET and married her husband who was in the armed forces there during the war, but who has since returned to Canada. She was met by an enthusiastic group of friends and relatives from Morinville and was whisked out of the station by them.

Mrs. Laughton was met here by her husband, a former employee of The Edmonton Bulletin, who now lives in Vancouver. The reunited couple will be staying here until Friday, they reported, at the home of Mrs. R. B. Mathson, 10024 106 Street.

Mr. Laughton served at Canadian military headquarters in London and it was in that city that he met his wife.

"I do like Canada very much," Mrs. Laughton said—and added after a pause, "especially the food."

THE TWO WAR BRIDES were met at the station by Mrs. T. H. Field of the Red Cross who looked after them until their husbands and relatives had been located in the crowded station.

Here For Talks

J. C. Hall, Calgary, assistant general sales manager, British American Oil Co. Ltd., arrived in Edmonton Wednesday to confer with executives of the company here.

Mr. Gordon came to Edmonton in 1916 and at that time was employed by the Dingle and Stewart company. Later he worked for the Brown Fruit Co. and was employed there up to the time of his death. He was a member of the United Commercial Travellers.

Surviving are his wife, one daughter, Mrs. D. F. Miller, Vancouver; two sisters, Mrs. A. T. Hanna, Fort Francis, Ont., and Mrs. R. J. B. Douglas Gordon Miller, Rev. Elgin Douglas Gordon Miller, Rev. Elgin G. Turnbull will conduct a funeral service on Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. at the Howard and McBride chapel.

60 RCAF Vets Return to City

Sixty Edmonton and district RCAF veterans returned to this city on Wednesday morning on a regular CNR train which had been delayed by the cold weather for nearly three hours.

The airmen crossed the Atlantic on the storm-tossed Queen Elizabeth and made unanimous report that even the Christmas dinner had been for many of them somewhat of a harrowing ordeal.

Their fellow RCAF passengers aboard the train were headed for Pacific coast points.

New Duties

Elmer Logan, who has been assistant secretary-treasurer with the Wartime Prices and Trade Board who on Wednesday took over the duties of chief enforcement officer, replacing R. Bruce Hall who has received a provincial governmental appointment in Calgary. Logan who concluded his work here on Wednesday afternoon.

Veterans Mark New Year's Eve

New Year's Eve was celebrated in grand style by veterans in the Government House convalescent home. Entertainment was supplied not only by persons from outside the hospital but also by the patients themselves.

Many guests were in attendance at the home to help the lads enjoy the event. During the evening they danced, sang and took part in a stage program. The veterans wish to thank all those who dropped in and helped with the evening's fun.

A special feature of the evening was a lovely big chicken and turkey dinner. Special credit for the arranging of the event goes to Mrs. A. Lamb, Mrs. Arnold Taylor, Miss Ruby Adair and her father, the staff of the home and a group of girls who are regular visitors to the convalescents.

Only Few Fatalities

New Year's Eve Celebration Most Joyous in Many Years

By The Canadian Press

Canadians spent a quiet New Year's Day after greeting 1946 with the noisiest, merriest and most expensive celebration in many years.

IT WAS THE FIRST peacetime New Year's since 1939 and thousands of servicemen were home from overseas to add to the general bedlam at the strike of midnight.

In Montreal, Toronto and other big cities, celebrants donned tuxedos and evening gowns and jammed hotel ballrooms and other nightspots.

Liquor, of which there were "adequate" supplies, flowed freely.

FRIENDS REUNITED for the first time in several years gathered at house parties. Later in the day family dinners of roast beef or turkey saw many Canadians sit down with quiet thanksgiving that they were entering a year of peace.

Church services thronged for watch night services.

Midnight shows drew large crowds at theatres.

OTTAWA RESIDENTS packed night clubs on the Hull side of the Ottawa river and flocked to public dance halls, hotels and theatre parties New Year's Eve. The capital observed New Year's Day quietly, but many were jammed with prime Minister Mackenzie King, held receptions. The last New Year's Eve to be given by the Earl of Athlone as governor-general was attended by more than 1,000 persons at noon.

Montrealers, resting after giving 1946 an enthusiastic "bienvenue!" kept close to their fireside as blustery weather chilled the upper St. Lawrence area after a light snowfall. Police said their were no serious accidents up to nightfall.

MONTREAL NIGHT CLUBS and theatres were jammed New Year's Eve and there were many house parties. Police held one celebrant on an assault charge arising from a fracas in front of a theatre in which a constable suffered a fractured skull. Police also reported eight minor holdups and one attempted holdup New Year's Eve.

Capacity crowds, paying from $7 to $17 a couple, cheered the advent of the New Year in Winnipeg night clubs and hotels. In general, the celebration in the Manitoba capital was up to pre-war standards. New Year's day was clear and bright with the temperature around zero.

ABOUT 2,500 Regina residents crowded into the Grain Show building on New Year's Eve to welcome home the 1st Battalion Regina Rifle regiment. The dance floor at a downtown hotel was jammed with merrymakers. Receptions New Year's day included those given by Lieutenant-General Parker, Premier J. T. Douglas and Chief Justice W. M. Martin.

Vancouver started off the new year with traffic accidents, mostly minor, and no fatalities. No major crime was reported overnight but police said many New Year's eve celebrants told them their money had been either lost or stolen.

HALIFAX FOLLOWED a lively New Year's Eve celebration with a quiet New Year's Day. Occasional rain fell over the Nova Scotian capital.

Uniforms were fewer and crowds merrier than for many years at elaborate New Year's parties at downtown Toronto hotels.

One suburban traffic fatality and two head-on collisions in which 11 persons were injured marked the first hours of Toronto's new year, Joseph A. MacDonald, 27, of Hastings, Ont., was struck and fatally injured by a southbound airport bus when he stepped from his motorcar.

TORONTO POLICE reported 21 accidents over the New Year's eve, most of them after midnight. Twenty persons were injured, six motorists were arrested for careless driving and police took cars away from eight drivers in general, the city did not consider in condition to navigate through heavy traffic.

Hamilton had one New Year's day fatality when a workman, 37-year-old John Vonhoff of suburban Stoney Creek was struck and killed by a motorcar as he cycled to work. A series of fights broke out downtown about midnight but police quickly quelled them without making arrests.

Hail New Year

might never see one another again.

Feline agility and fleetness of limb saved the life of a cat which tore madly across Jasper avenue, narrowing missing the loss of one of its nine lives under the tracks of a passing tram, when it escaped the jaws of its traditional enemy—a nondescript scrooge with a hairless tail and a patch of black over one eye.

One observer of the many who had witnessed the incident was overheard to remark to an apparently equally bibulous comrade: "Well, that cat must be dead!" Guess it'll have a happy new year now, but it will only be through its own efforts. It wasn't getting much help from the dog."

"I guess us humans will have to do the same," he added.

Church "REPLIED to his friend, "if you could run like that cat you wouldn't have to worry about post Christmas and New Year's bill collectors—now, let's go. It's now a good place . . ." he said as the pair continued unsteadily on their way. While outdoor festivities were continuing the celebration in a boisterous manner other celebrants of the new year were attending special midnight services at many of Edmonton's churches. Many church-goers attended the especially prepared New Year's morning services for adults and rallies for the younger people.

A record number of Edmontonians representing all walks of life, attended the Tuesday afternoon levee held by Hon. J. C. Bowen at the assembly room of the legislative building. His Honor was assisted in receiving by Premier Ernest Manning.

NATIVE BORN SCOTS and people of Scottish ancestry opened their doors in the traditional welcome to neighbors associated with Hogmanay, each carrying a gift for the host before crossing the threshold. Many and varied were the exchanges resulting from this time-honored custom. Besides many informal arrangements for Hogmanay the clans turned out in generous numbers at the concert and dance held in the IOOF Hall.

Veteran servicemen, many of them still in uniform even though 1946 existence had begun, also were welcomed into the homes of many Edmonton residents to share in the festive attendant upon the holiday, and at least in one instance it was reported that through this contact a bride was found for one veteran and his family.

SPECIAL FARE TICKLED the palates of many of Edmonton's transient visitors as most of the cafes of the city, and in the larger hotels and dining places many hundreds of guests were served their New Year's dinner after arrangements and reservations had been made a week ago or more days.

New Year's provided the saving grace for many persons who had inadvertently forgotten someone on their Christmas list, and greeting mail as well as wrapped gifts constituted a fair part of the volume handled through the post office.

New Year's, the traditional time chosen by many persons to turn over a will and good intention for the abandonment of erring ways and the turning over of a new leaf, saw a good number whose resolution fell by the wayside when they continued to sip after midnight.

IT IS SAID THAT a New Year's Eve reminded of their pledge of self denial many expressed a remorse which proved to be only temporary after solemnly declaring they would carry out their pledge in 1947.

Fresh air enthusiasts enjoyed the holiday to the full as many residents donned the blades and worked up a ravenous appetite for the annual gastronomical delights awaiting them on brilliantly laid out New Year's dinner tables. In this group also were the skiers and tobogganers, both adult and junior, who tramped in red cheeked with a loud and hearty "Happy New Year" as a piping hot feast.

ALTOGETHER IT CAN be said that Edmonton and Alberta enjoyed one of the most boisterous and unpacked New Year's since before the days of the great depression back in 1930, and most of the celebrants looked forward to a new year, and a new era, with renewed hope and courage.

Obscurity Continues to Veil Future of Civilian Sea Travel

Looks to Future

R. W. GREENE

Obscurity continues to veil the New Year's picture insofar as civilian ocean travel is concerned, it was learned Wednesday in an interview with R. W. Greene, assistant general agent, Canadian Pacific Steamship Lines.

PRESENT TRAVEL WAS restricted to applicants intending to cross the Atlantic to remain as residents in England, but general pleasure cruising was still on the "off" list and would likely continue to be for a considerable period.

Mr. Greene pointed out that passenger ships had been reconverted for war purposes as early as five years ago, and each ship would require many months' attention in refitting and reconditioning for the accommodation of passengers on pleasure voyages.

SHIPS UNDER BRITISH registry were still under the control of the British Ministry of Transport and it was not known definitely when they would be returned to private control. Work on their reconversion would not likely commence until they were released from control of the ministry, it was understood.

During the war the entire fleet of CPR freighters plying between Canada and European ports was lost. They were of the famous 10,000-ton "Beaver" class.

REPLACING THESE, four completely modern fast cargo freighters, built on the Clyde, will soon be in weekly service across the Atlantic, Mr. Greene stated.

An idea in the change to modernity in construction of these fast freighters is contained in a short story of the funnel for "Beaverdell," one of the 10,000-ton freighters recently launched at Port Glasgow, Scotland.

It took all day to transfer the huge cylinder from the maker's yards at Greenock to the sleek, newly-baptised merchant runner. The funnel, which weighs more than 20 tons, is designed to provide ventilation for the entire engine room and to carry smoke and exhaust steam through smaller channels within the funnel itself.

IT IS ALSO FITTED with iron ladders and is the first Canadian Pacific merchant liner to be painted with the company's house flag on port and starboard sides.

Launching ceremony of the "Beaverdell" at Port Glasgow was attended by D. C. Coleman, chairman and president of the company, and Mrs. Coleman.

Air Organizers Given Awards New Year's List

OTTAWA, Jan. 2—(CP)—Emphasis was placed on organization in the King's Canadian New Year's RCAF Honors List.

Air vice-marshal Roy Slemon, CBE, of Winnipeg, the youthful chief who organized the Canadian Air Unit for the Japanese theatre, with a Companionship in the Order of the Bath (CB), headed the list of 488 names.

Slemon left his post as chief executive officer of the overseas air staff at short notice when the previously-selected Pacific commander—Air Vice Marshal C. M. (Black Mike) McEwen—failed to pass a medical test.

HE BROUGHT his heavy bombers back from the European Theatre in mass flights and had begun to train them in Pacific tactics on the east coast when Japan capitulated. He recently was appointed to the air staff as a member for supply and organization and is looked upon as a future chief of the air staff.

The list represented a cross-section of air force planning effort, administration and welfare. Nursing sisters and "WIDS" are included and at least a couple of veteran aces are given additional recognition.

The RCAF's chief padres are among the airmen made Commanders of the Order of the British Empire (CBE). They are Air Commodore Rev. J. E. A. Charest of Hull, Que., and Air Commodore W. E. Cockram of Ottawa, Roman Catholic and Protestant chiefs, respectively.

forces began jockeying to decide which one was to make the rules which would affect the habits of life of the same groups of people.

Infantrymen will remember that the wisest thing to do was to keep under cover when two tank units became engaged in a battle in their immediate vicinity. Servicemen may be well advised to keep out of this great battle between management and labor until the results are clear. Any action they may take at this time is bound to affect their entire futures. They aren't in a position to know what the score is, they haven't the information which both labor and management have, and to get mixed up in it at all will turn out to have been the case of "rushing in where angels fear to tread."

EVERYBODY, INCLUDING the government, anticipated just such a situation as we witness now, would occur as soon as the war was over. The restraints imposed by wartime conditions and public opinion are off. It is no secret that management has long hoped that the release of great numbers of able men from the forces would provide an opportunity for making labor toe the line. It is no secret that labor is determined that nobody is going to make them toe any lines. Labor is determined to get a greater share of the profits—and, as somebody said, "a little jam" to put on their daily bread.

THE REASON I SAY that the government knew this was coming, is because they have provided for just such an emergency as this—and they have made it clear that they don't expect the ex-servicemen to take sides in the disputes. I say this because it is clearly laid down in the order-in-council providing for the payment of out-of-work benefits.

No person shall become disqualified if he has declined an offer of employment arising in consequence of a stoppage of work due to a labor dispute, or if he refuses to accept employment if, by the acceptance thereof, he would lose the right to become a member, or to continue to be a member and to observe the rules of, or to refrain from becoming a member of any association, organization or union of workers.

THIS CLEARLY SHOWS that the government does not wish returned men to permit themselves to be used as "scab" or "hacking" labor for strike-breaking purposes.

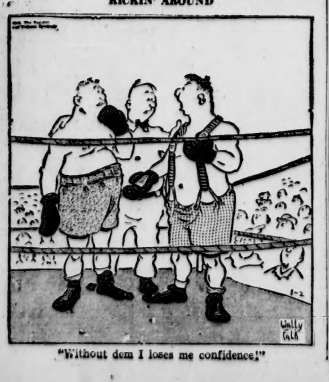

At the same time the government also lays down that if an ex-serviceman is working in a plant in which a dispute arises he cannot receive out-of-work benefits for the time he is out on strike. In other words he is treated the same as any other worker. The government is not going to subsidize strikers.

It is clear from all this that the government is not taking sides. It is clear that they do not want the ex-servicemen to take sides. The ex-servicemen will be well advised to heed this "between the lines" advice which is offered to them by the government. These disputes will all be settled—then you will know which side your bread is buttered on.

New Year Dancers Rout Officialdom

PRINCE ALBERT, Jan. 2—(CP)—When members of the 44th Battery, RCA, arrived home at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning, all welcoming plans at a huge dance at the armory had to be abandoned. The 2,000 dancers took charge and efforts to make welcome speeches were finally abandoned. About 25 men reached Prince Albert aboard a special train which stopped near the armory, where a New Year's Eve dance was in progress and where it had been planned to hold a formal civic welcome.
